

The Fall Feasts of Israel;
their Meaning, their
Purpose and their
Final Fulfillment.

Hello and welcome to this excursion into Bible prophecy.

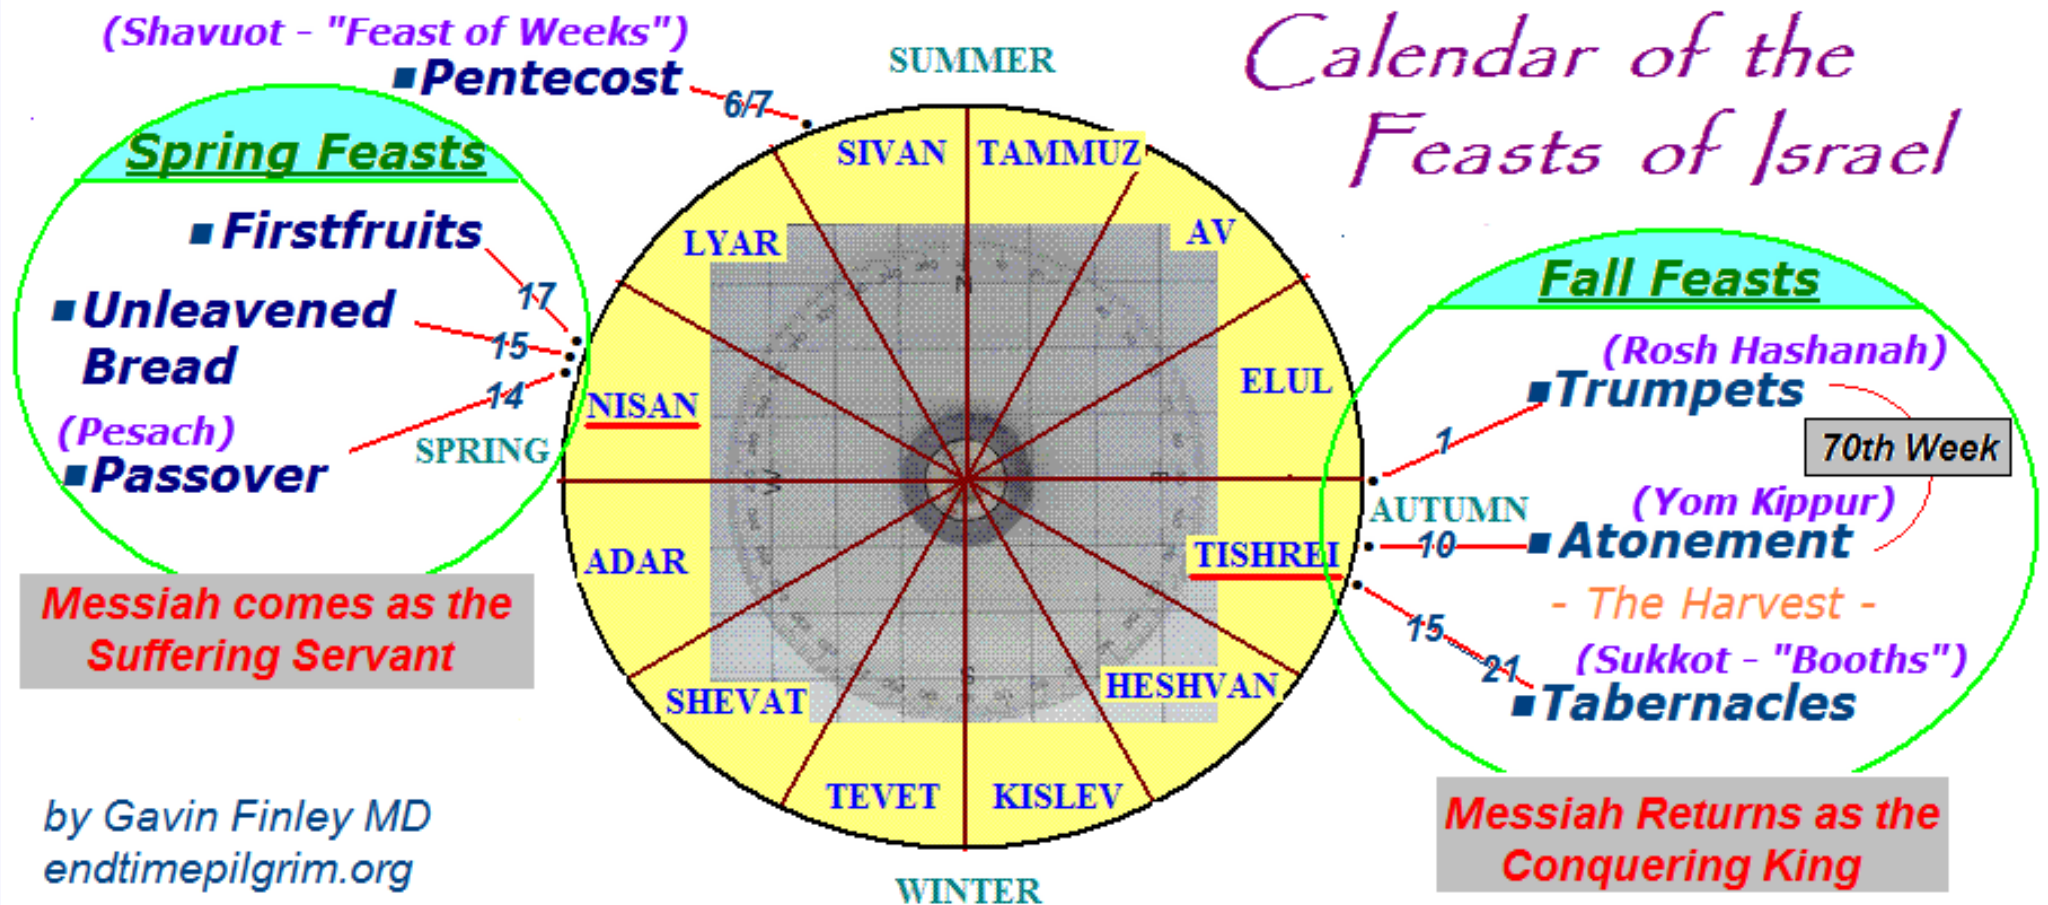

This video is entitled,

The Fall Feasts of Israel;
their Meaning, their Purpose,
and their Final Fulfillment.

The Fall Feasts of Israel;
their Meaning, their
Purpose and their
Final Fulfillment.

Before we focus on the Fall Feasts let's take a quick look at all seven feasts. These are the the holy convocations, the moeds, the feasts of the Lord, of the Lord. His name, according to some of the Karaite Jews, is Ye-ho-vah', He is the Almighty and Everlasting One, the God of Israel, AND the God of the Christian Church or the Congregation of Messiah. These holidays are celebrations and rehearsals of seven divinely appointed events. Four of them have already broken out into holy history in times past. The remaining three of them will erupt into their monumental fulfillments in times to come.

THE FIRST FOUR FEASTS HAVE BEEN FULFILLED. THE THREE FALL FEASTS ARE NOW AWAITING FULFILLMENT.

The Bible was never intended to be obtuse or complicated. The prophet Habakkuk was told to “write the vision” he was given of the latter days and to “make it plain and simple on tablets.” In Habakkuk chapter two God sends a stern warning to those who seek dominion by craft and disinformation and to the false teachers who will rise up in the latter days and confuse the plain meaning of His Holy Word.

Habakkuk 2

² And the LORD answered me, and said, “Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

³ For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak :
though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come . . .”

God brings us a host of prophetic messages from the Old Testament as well as the New.

In 1Corinthians 10 our Apostle Paul says,

“Now these things happened to them as examples for us to take note of, shadows of things to come. They were written down for our admonition. They are instructive warnings for us, the people for whom the ends of the earth, or the culmination of the ages, has come.” - 1Cor. 10:11 – (GWF expanded)

Our Apostle Paul

“Now these things happened to them as examples for us to take note of. They were written down as types and shadows, as instructive warnings for us, on whom the ends of the earth, or the culmination of the ages, has come.”

- 1Cor. 10:11

The seven feasts were ordained by God and received by Moses at Sinai.

They have been celebrated and rehearsed, (after a fashion), ever since those former times.

So are the feasts just annual festivals of a bygone era? Are they to be regarded by Christian believers as just ancient Jewish lore and ritual? The Bible calls them the Feasts of the Lord. So can we really say that they are irrelevant? No . . . Not at all.

God ordained the feasts for all His Elect. This includes the royal Jewish House of Judah to be sure. But the other house, the wild, lost, and amnesic House of Ephraim in the West is not to be forgotten. This company of people now sets the global agenda and carries the main bulk of believers in our Hebrew Messiah. Yes, the Ephraim that was divorced from Israel and declared by God “not my people” is now coming back. Through the New Covenant they are being grafted back into the olive tree of Israel.

YAH'SHUA

As we see in Isaiah 49:6
and in many other scriptures
God's Servant was prophesied to be a Light to the heathen,
the nations, the Gentiles.

*A Light
to the heathen,
the Nations,
Gentiles.*

The infant Jesus was presented at the Temple. The priest Simeon announced that the child grow up to be the promised Light for revelation to the Gentiles and to His people Israel.

Simeon Reverencing the Christ Child, by Greg K. Olsen, © 1987 Greg K. Olsen, do not copy

“Sovereign Lord, as you have promised, you may now dismiss your servant in peace. For my eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared in the sight of all nations: a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and the glory of your people Israel.”

- Luke 2:29-32 NIV

Today, nearly 2,000 later, the Light to the Gentiles is shining out to the ends of the earth. And how is that happening?

For God, who commanded the Light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

II Corinthians 4:6

The Light of Israel, is shed abroad through the Gospel. Even now, our Savior and Redeemer is indwelling, ministering, and ruling in human hearts.

Our Apostle Paul tells us in Ephesians 2:12-13 that through the blood of Christ our Messiah, (and not the DNA bloodlines in which it may flow), the Gentiles, formerly strangers to the covenants of promise, will join the adoption into the citizenship or Commonwealth of Israel.

Commonwealth of Israel

So the feasts are signposts on a roadmap. They are provided for ALL of those who are apprehended by that Light to the nations. The Fall Feasts are a special blessing for us, if we can just see it. They were given to us as a timepiece to document and to track the unfolding of God's agenda here below. This is important. Because our journey will take us on into some awesome future times, and right up to the midnight hour.

”these things happened unto them for examples;
and they were written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come”. 1Cor. 10:11

All of us have a sure and certain divine appointment with our Messiah. A search through the Holy Scriptures of such phrases as “appointed time”, “set time”, or “that Day” points to the climax of the age when Messiah will return at the time of the harvest. We’ll talk about that later in this video.

But typically Christians will say, “What’s this Seven Feast business? Hey, this is Old Testament Jewish stuff isn’t it? And you say “written down for our admonition. Really? Hey, we are the Church! We are different from Israel. We have an entirely separate deal. And you say that I am one of those persons for whom the ends of this age, will come? Who me?”

Who me?

Ever since the Day of Pentecost God has been at work by His Holy Spirit. And as we read Isaiah 49:6 it seems that our Messiah has a big all encompassing agenda. The Light of Israel is going out to the ends of the earth. The fullness of the heathen Gentiles is being brought in. And just as He promised, our Messiah is multiplying the nation of Israel.

And he said, “It is too small a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved ones of Israel: I will also give you for a light to the Gentiles, that you may be my salvation unto the ends of the earth.” Isa. 49:6

In the Olivet Discourse our Messiah promised that He will re-gather ALL His covenant people as a single undivided Elect. He asked His prophet Ezekiel to do a show and tell for us on this reunion just so we'd get the message. It's there in Ezekiel 37. The two sticks are destined to become one. Joseph's dream was that all his brothers would bow down to him. And in Genesis 49 Jacob declared to his son Judah that Shiloh would come, and unto Him shall the gathering of the people be. In the dual office of the Order of Melchizedek both of these prophecies are will be fulfilled to restore Israel as a single undivided royal priesthood and a holy nation.

Our God is calling the shots here. He created the cosmos and as He sits upon His throne above the heavens He is sovereign across space and time. He has the whole world in His hands. And during the final seven years of this age He is The One who oversees the unfolding of His agenda. He sets the limits of the raging of the nations. He is the Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. And He is the Author and the Finisher of our faith.

At the set times of the feasts God is showing us that Newtonian time and space, this whole cosmos, is His. All of holy history, past and future, from here to eternity was written down by Him before the foundation of the world. And on the coming Day of the Lord all this is to be revealed. On that Day a portal will open between heaven and earth to reveal the unseen eternal realms beyond.

Beyond Boundaries Of Time And Space

Holy History unfolds according to God's over-arching plan. He officiates over the end-time from His courts above. In Daniel 7 we see that the Ancient of Days is presiding in judgment over events as they unfold during the Great Tribulation.

Daniel 7

10. “As I looked, thrones were placed, and the Ancient of Days took his seat; his clothing was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool; his throne was fiery flames; its wheels were burning fire. 10. A stream of fire issued and came out from before him; a thousand thousands served him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him; the court sat in judgment, and the books were opened.

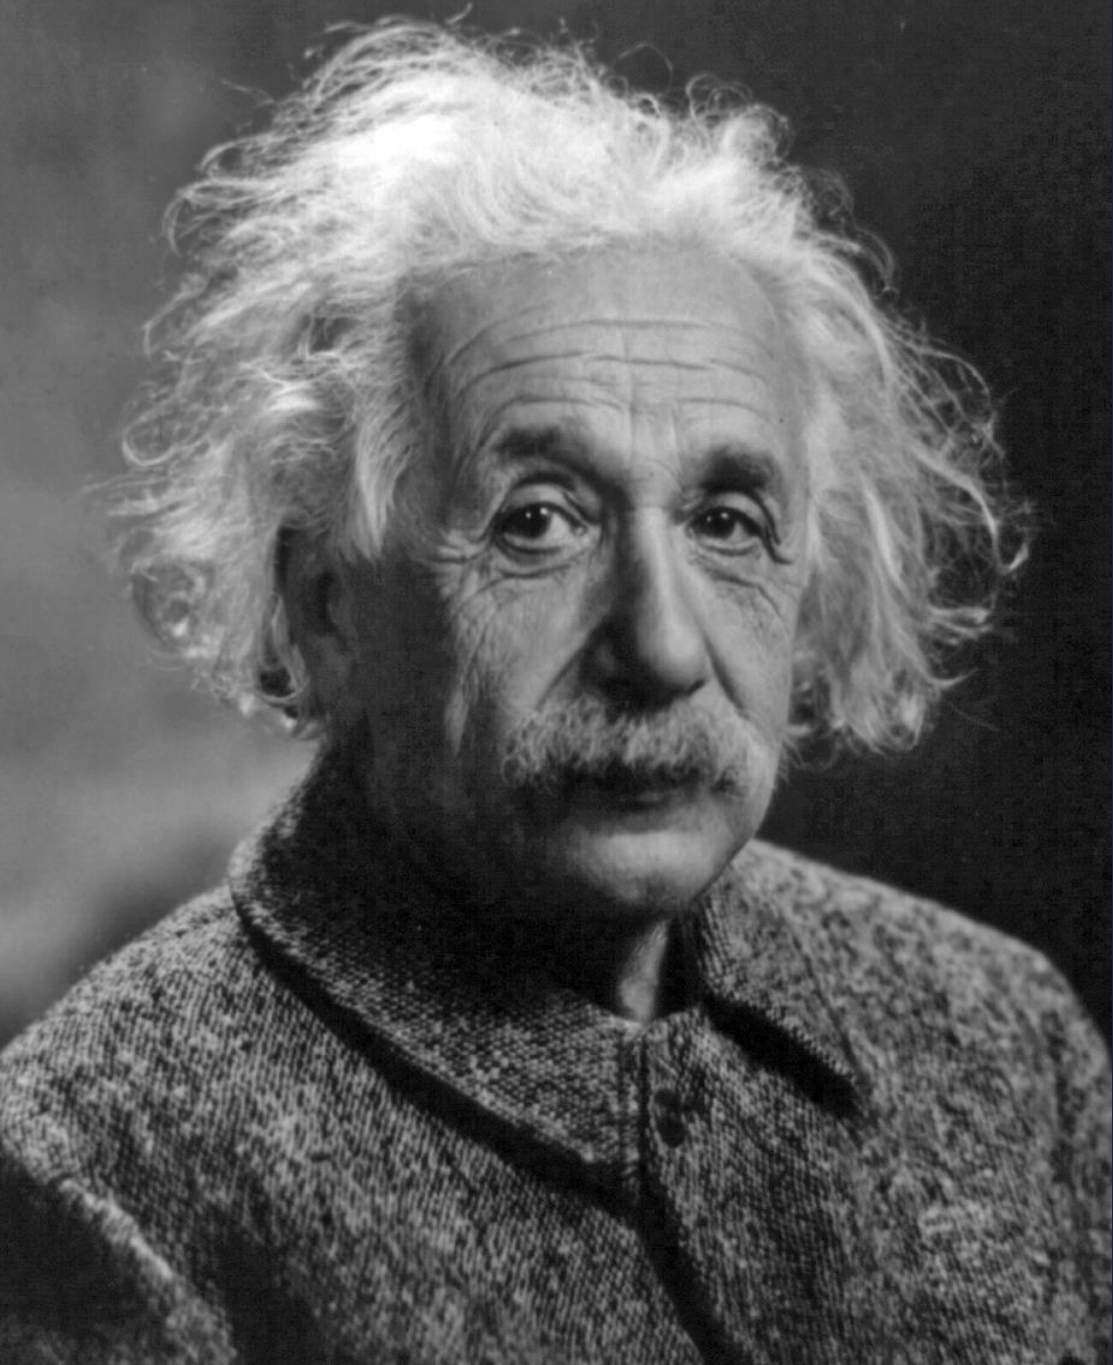

John saw the unfolding court case as well and described it in Revelation 4.

A Judge, Christ our Messiah, will preside over His own revelation in holy history. He will oversee it all and set the limits on events as the epic saga unfolds here below.

4 After this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, "Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter." ² And immediately I was in the spirit: and, behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne. ³ And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

The end-time agenda of our God has been determined and written down. His acts of kindness are not random. They are very deliberate and ordered. Einstein was right. God does not play dice with the Universe.

“God does not play dice with the universe.”

Way back at Sinai God instituted those Fall Feasts. They are for all the people of His adoption. And in those future times He will be taking all His covenant people out on a continuing journey, a journey back, to the future. Whether we choose to be a part of His people, Daniel's people, or the Congregation, or covenants of Israel is up to us.

So here are the three Spring feasts over on the left. They are Passover, Unleavened Bread, and Firstfruits.

They were fulfilled 2,000 years ago; And precisely on the dates to which they belonged. And just how were those Spring Feasts fulfilled? Well.

In some very Christian ways.

Briefly stated, they were fulfilled in the death, burial, and Resurrection of Jesus. These three pivotal events erupted into holy history precisely on the very Hebrew calendar feast dates to which they belonged.

The three Fall Feasts are over on the right. Our Jewish friends have remembered these Holy Days for us. Thank God they did. And may God bless them for this. Because we sure didn't. And we are not remembering them now. We are a forgetful people. These are dates on the Hebrew calendar in which certain epic events are yet to occur. The three Fall Feasts are sitting there waiting for us to look into them. Each holiday awaits the appointed time, and the day that will witness their final fulfillment.

In this video we'll focus on the first two of those Fall Feasts. What is the spirit and character of each one? Let's study them. Let's ask God to explain to us their deeper meaning. How are they celebrated today? And how is their future fulfillment being rehearsed? Just what will God be doing when each divine appointment is fulfilled in times to come? And let's not forget to ask this question. Why will He be doing it?

So let's consider the Fall Feasts,
the first one being the Feast of Trumpets. The more Biblically based name from Leviticus
23:24, 25 is Yome Teruah.

And if we put an “e” at the end of the word Yom
we’ll be prompted to pronounce it right.

It is pronounced
Yome Teruah

Yom Teruah

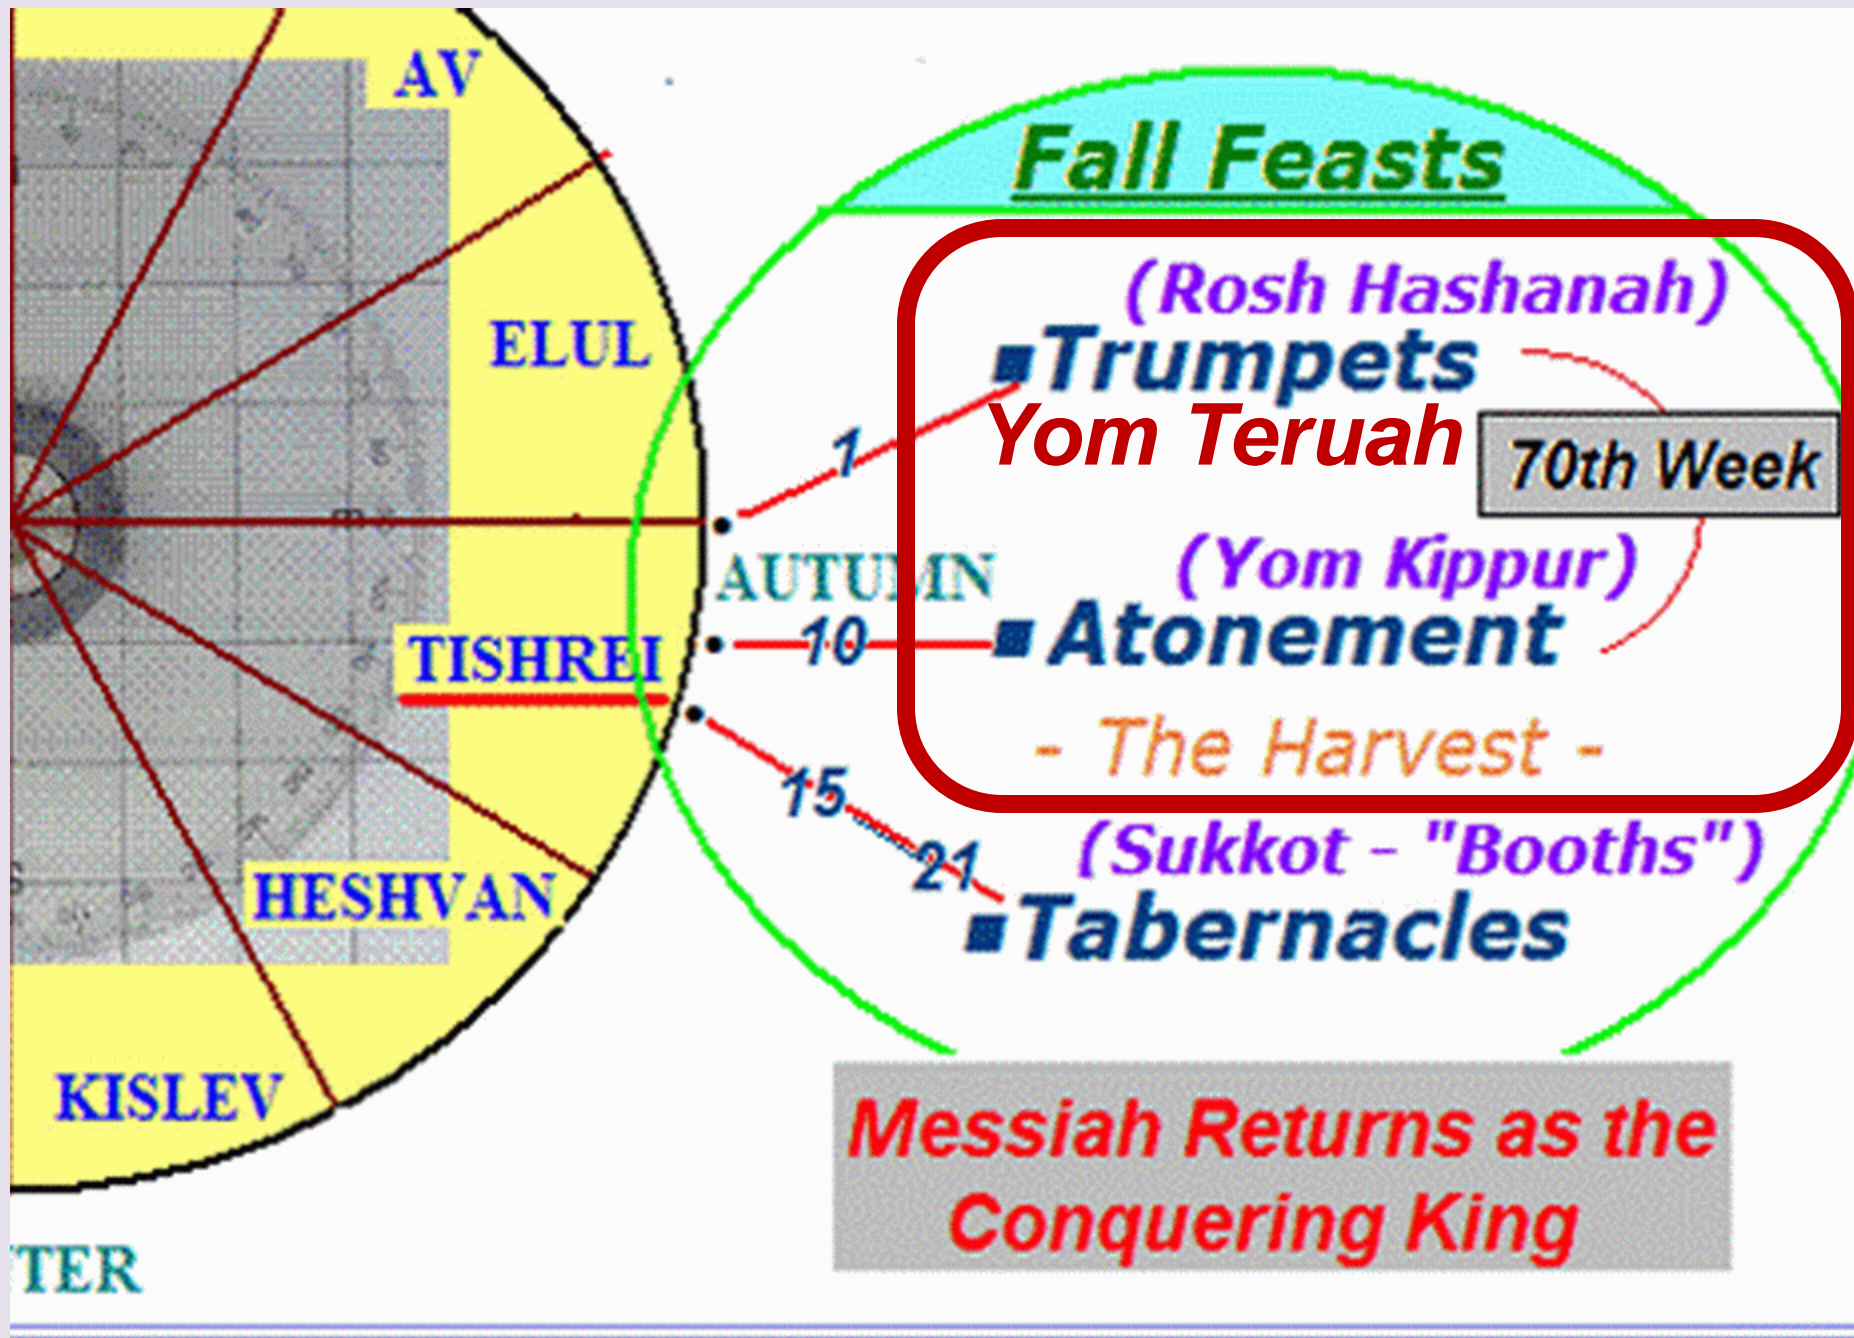

- pronounced

Yome Teruah.

After Yom Teruah comes the Day of Atonement. Our Jewish friends call it Yome Kippur from the Hebrew word “kapparah” which means to cover or to protect.

It is now becoming quite apparent that these two Fall Feasts are very important. In a time future and right on these Hebrew calendar dates God's covenant people will find themselves facing world events of Biblical proportions. Those who sincerely seek the face of God are now beginning to study these feasts and to face up to the issues they present faithfully and responsibly.

Here's a simple question.
Will these seven divine appointments continue to unfold in the sequence God has laid out in Leviticus 23?

If we look at what has happened
so far we can be sure that they will.

In a previous video entitled, "The Fall Feasts and the Timeline of the Final 7 Years of this Age" we saw that the Feast of Trumpets, (aka Yom Teruah), and the Day of Atonement (or Yom Kippur), appear to be bookends staking out the final seven years of this age. There is a precisely fitted 2550 day timeline here. It encompasses the 70th Week of Daniel and goes on to terminate on the Day of Atonement which in turn, ushers in the Day of the Lord .

The first two Fall Feasts are yet to be fulfilled.
They will encompass the 70th Week of Daniel and initiate and terminate the final seven years of this age.

This is pretty remarkable.
The two timelines measure out to precisely 2550 days.

Is this likely to be just a coincidence?

As we have seen in our earlier study, most of the future seven year timelines that bridge the Fall Feasts across seven years, (timeline's that embrace 86 moons and not 87 moons), are time periods of 2550 days. This is the exact day-count for the final 7 years of this age.

Some upcoming inclusive day counts between Trumpets and Atonement for some future seven year time spans.

Sept. 7, 2013 to Sept. 28, 2020 is 2579 days

Sept. 26, 2014 to Sept. 18, 2021 is 2550 days *

Sept. 15, 2015 to Oct. 7, 2022 is 2580 days

Sept. 3, 2016 to Sept. 26, 2023 is 2580 days

Sept. 22, 2017 to Sept. 14, 2024 is 2550 days *

Sept. 11, 2018 to Oct. 3, 2025 is 2580 days

Sept. 1, 2019 to Sept. 22, 2026 is 2579 days

Sept. 19, 2020 to Sept. 11, 2027 is 2549 days

Sept. 9, 2021 to Sept. 30, 2028 is 2579 days

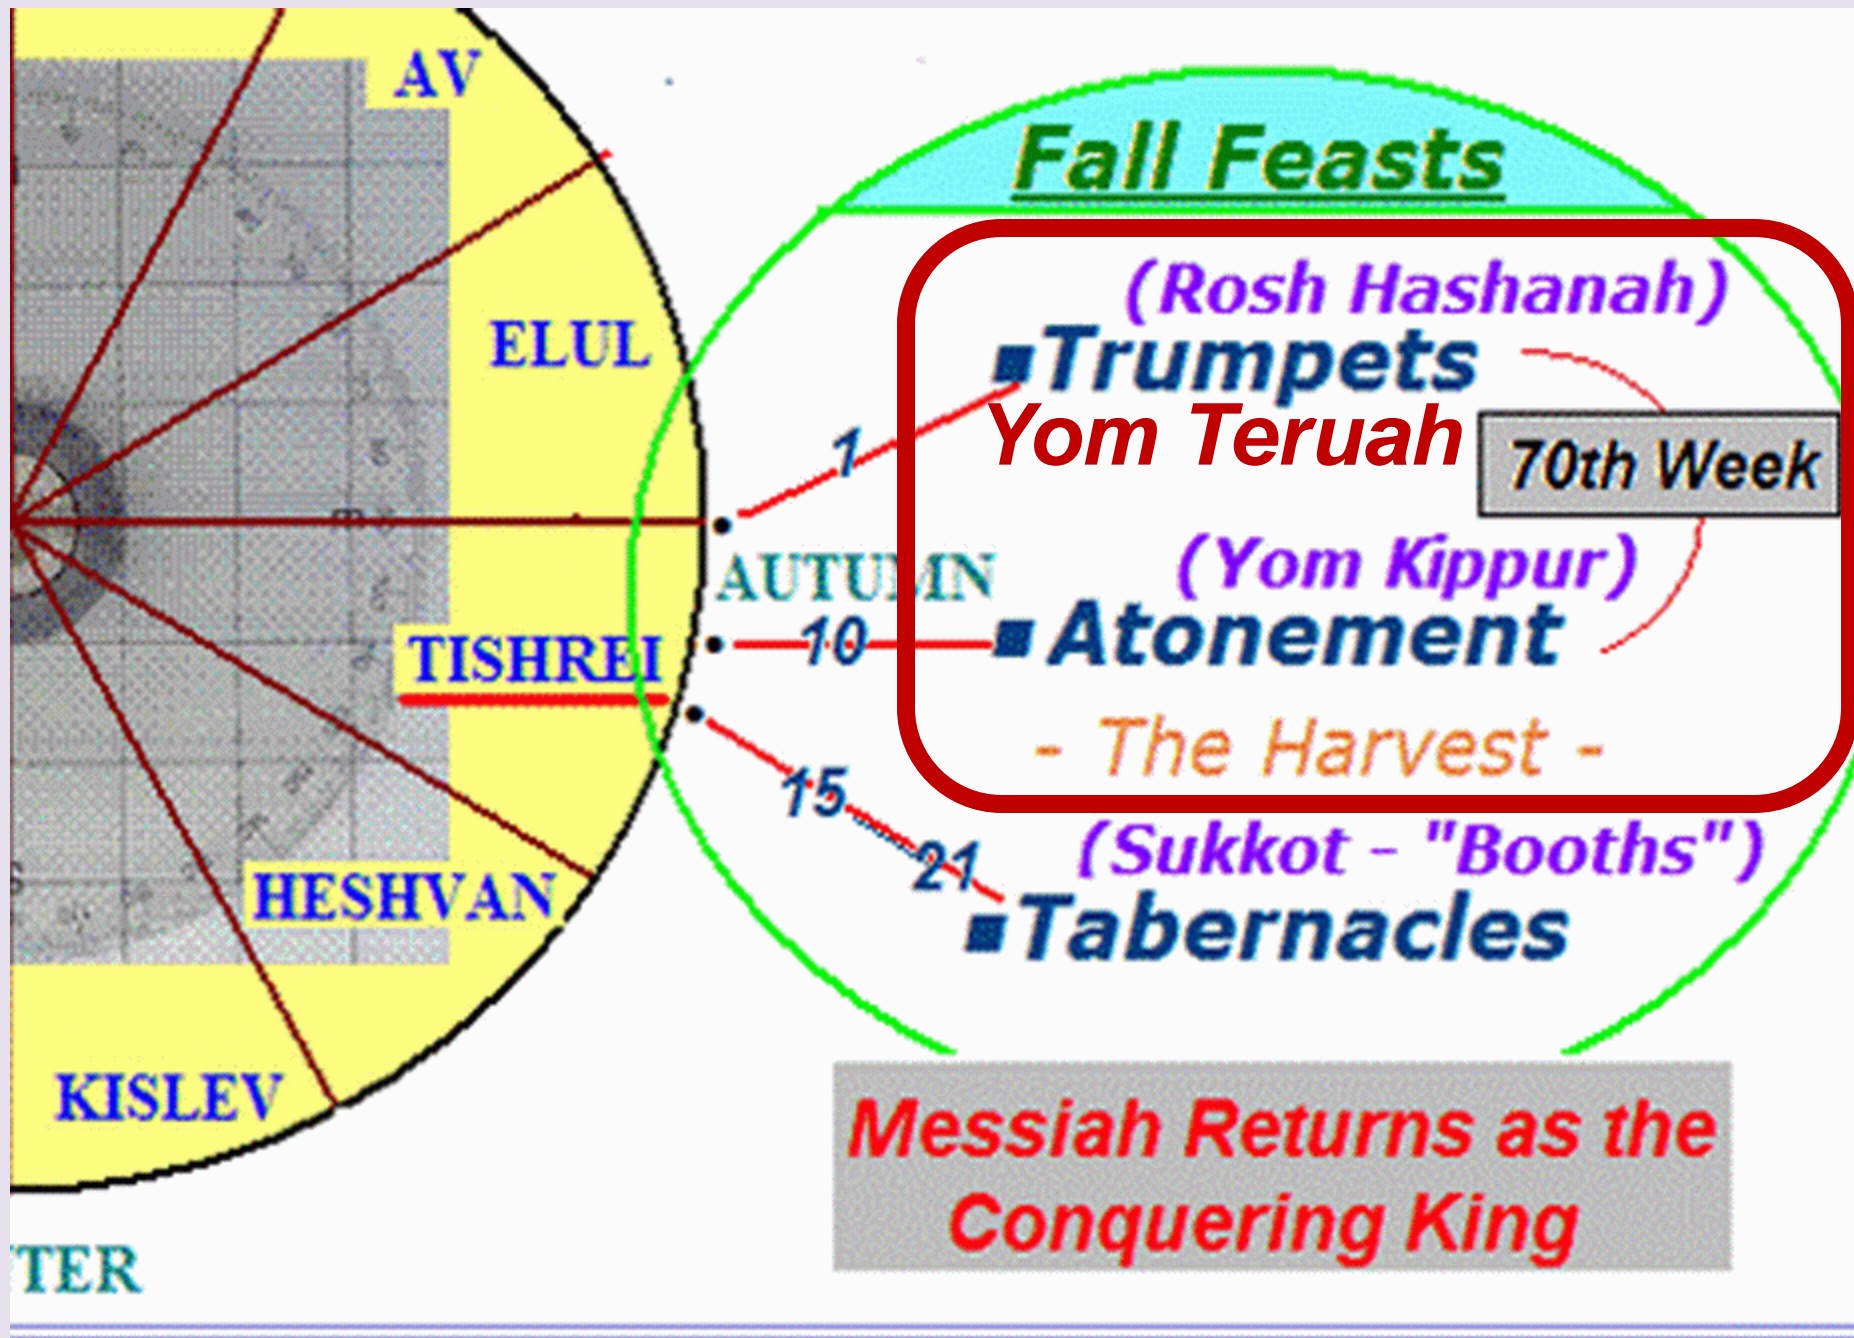

Sept. 28, 2022 to Sept. 20, 2029 is 2550 days *

Sept. 17, 2023 to Oct. 9, 2030 is 2580 days

Sept. 5, 2024 to Sept. 28, 2031 is 2580 days

Sept. 24, 2025 to Sept. 16, 2032 is 2550 days *

Now we go on to address the main purpose of this video and ask this question. What is the spirit, nature, and purpose of these two upcoming appointed times? By what events and in what manner will they come into their divine fulfillments? (Ken Burns effect)

Christian and Messianic believers are now beginning to realize that the Fall Feasts must see their ultimate fulfillment in two highly significant future events. These two feasts should be the object of diligent inquiry. But alas, this is not happening. Many great truths about the latter days are still hidden from us. Our dear Messianic rabbis still insist on keeping the Fall Feasts cloaked in Jewish tradition. And our Christian churchmen are either ignoring the feasts or hijacking them to support their popular pet doctrines.

*The Mystery
of the Teruah.*

“Study to show yourself approved unto God,
a workman that need not to be ashamed,
rightly dividing the word of truth.”

- 2 Tim. 2:15

So let's start with this. Does Yom Teruah fit the spirit and character of the Resurrection-Rapture? Does the broken noted Teruah shofar blast exhibit the note of closure we might expect to hear at the Last Trump? Let's examine the evidence and look more carefully into this matter. Because the Yom Teruah rehearsed in the Jewish house ushers us into a season of repentance known as the Days of Awe. A trumpet call to assembly in repentance is one thing. And a trumpet blast proclaiming the grand finale of the age, the final glorification, the Resurrection-Rapture of the Elect, is quite another. These events would seem to call for quite distinct and different shofar sounds. Which shofar blast fits and matches which occasion? Let's look into this matter.

Motivational speaking with what is called a “positive” or “upbeat” message to boost something called “self esteem” now dominates Christian pulpits in the West. So repentance is deemed unnecessary, unbecoming, even “negative”. So it is neglected. The Feast of Trumpets is an alarm. It is a call to a season of repentance. This fact is swept under the carpet. Yom Teruah will initiate the final seven years leading up to our final exam on Judgment Day, the Day of Atonement. So if Yom Teruah is indeed a call to assembly before God, a call to repentance, to prayer, to fasting, as we see in Joel 2 would not the Teruah shofar blast be appropriate for such a time as this?

Blow the trumpet in Zion!

Sound
an alarm
in My holy mountain!

Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble;
The day of the LORD
is coming,
Behold, it is at hand.
joel two verse one

www.alittleperspective.com

15. Blow the trumpet in Zion, declare a holy fast, call a sacred assembly. 16. Gather the people, consecrate the assembly; bring together the elders, gather the children, those nursing at the breast. Let the bridegroom leave his room and the bride her chamber. 17. Let the priests, who minister before the LORD, weep between the portico and the altar.

Is all of God's work really done? Has the fullness of the Gentiles been brought in? And has not the Shepherd of Israel said that He will call His sheep by name and gather them to Himself in the latter days. And might they do better repenting, that is, turning around, and coming to Him instead of going their own way?

As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day.

Now let us take a look at the terminus of those final 7 years. Yom Kippur or the Day of Atonement is a rehearsal for Judgment Day. And what else might we expect to happen on that day? In Leviticus 25 God through Moses ordained that the trumpets of Jubilee were to sound every 49 years on Tishri 10 right on the Day of Atonement. So might we not expect that the trumpets sounding on that final wrap-up Day of Accounting will also be announcing that long awaited climactic Jubilee of Messiah? Such an awesome future Day of Atonement would not only mark the terminus of this present evil age. It would also usher us into the next age, the glorious Millennium of Messiah.

Atonement is on

There is now an upwelling of interest in the Feasts of the Lord. These are the moeds, the appointed times of Yehovah the Almighty Eternal God. This makes for some very interesting discussions. Right now God's called-out covenant people are divided. They are in two estranged and sometimes feuding camps.

ISRAEL and the CHURCH

But we need to remember this. Back at the last feast, the Feast of Pentecost, did we not see two LEAVENED loaves lifted up? Leaven is a type of sin. So Pentecost, great blessing that this has been, will not take us to the end of our journey. By itself it will not deliver. So then, if God has some further dealings with all His covenant people might we not expect that He will accomplish this during the Fall Feasts.

¹⁵ 'You shall also count for yourselves from the day after the Sabbath, from the day when you brought in the sheaf of the wave offering; there shall be seven complete Sabbaths. ¹⁶ You shall count fifty days to the day after the seventh Sabbath; then you shall present a new grain offering to the Lord. ¹⁷ You shall bring in from your dwelling places two loaves of bread for a wave offering, made of two-tenths of an ephah; they shall be of a fine flour, baked with leaven as first fruits to the LORD. - Lev. 23:15-17

Two witnesses stand before the God of the earth. There is a genuine witness to God's Law, to His righteous rule, and to His Kingdom that will come to earth under Messiah. There is also a witness to God's Grace and His mercy in the Gospel. Both have their angelic witness standing before the God of the earth. They are showcased at the mercy seat, the very throne of God.

The prophet Zechariah saw two olive trees emptying their oil into a golden bowl supplying the oil for the seven branched candlestick, the menorah, the true and genuine symbol of Israel. In Zechariah 4 we see that the two olive trees are described as “the two anointed ones who stand before the God of the earth.”

Commonwealth of Israel

In Revelation chapter 11 John is told that “the two witnesses are the two olive trees and the two lampstands, and they stand before the Lord of the earth.” Each sheds light on the pieces of the puzzle to reveal the mystery of Israel. In Messiah the two great lights complement each other beautifully. And so as the story plays out the Sabbath prayers will be answered and the promised restoration of all Israel will surely come. This magnificent piece of apocalyptic art is by the Jewish artist Eizen. His work can be purchased at the Israeli Poster Center.

In Christ, in our Messiah, all the pieces do come together. And they will come together. All these mysteries will be revealed. But the final wrap-up awaits the re-gathering, the repentance, and the refining of all Israel. This is what God will be doing in the latter days. Even now, as holy history unfolds positive things are beginning to happen. Each faction is finding themselves strangely blessed by the other. We are in fact seeing the early stirrings of the epic latter day re-union and restoration of all Israel. How wonderful is that?

Israel includes both the nation, (or the scepter of Israel in the royal throne of David in the Jewish house of Judah) and the Congregation of Israel or as we call it “the Church”. In Ezekiel 37 the prophet saw the two separated entities as two sticks that were to be re-united. The two estranged houses of Israel are to be restored to each other at the climax of the age and will become one. The Apostle Paul spoke of those who are saved under the atoning blood of Christ, (Israel’s promised Sacrifice Lamb), as entering into the Commonwealth of Israel. This reunion will surely happen. But both parties are in partial blindness to these things at this point in time.

Commonwealth of Israel

Scales are now coming off the eyes. Christians are now starting to see that Yom Teruah, AKA the Feast of Trumpets, is not just a Jewish holiday. And our Jewish friends are now beginning to see that the divine appointment they rehearse every year is more than just a time for dipping apples in honey and saying “Have a sweet New Year”. As we saw in our other videos, the Teruah is an urgent awakening . It is the Voice of God, a summons to all His covenant people to fasting, prayer, and to repentance. It is also the day of the “joyful sound”. So this future Day of the Teruah must be a very important day up there in our future.

Feast of Trumpets

As we shared in a previous video on Yom Teruah, there are four classic Hebrew shofar blasts. This traditional sequence goes back into antiquity. The Teruah shofar blast is not the last trumpet in the sequence. It is the third. And as we have seen, the Teruah gives Yom Teruah its name. It is the trumpet of alarm, an awakening, a revival, a call to repentance, and a summons to assembly before God. It is a remembrance of God. And in the shout and in the trumpet blast we cry out to Him to remember us.

The Teruah shofar blast has a certain musical character. In the sharply chopped sound there is an alarm and an urgent appeal. God's people are in a state of distress and brokenness. And in that same Teruah trumpet blast and in the shout God is echoing back to His people with an inspiring summons to assembly before Him and before Him alone. In the Teruah God's people experience a great blessing. The divine Presence descends down upon them.

So what is God's purpose in that future epic Yom Teruah? What will happen when His covenant people hear the call on that awesome future eye popping day when the 7 year covenant of Daniel 9:27 is confirmed? We can be sure that there will be an awakening. A great wave of repentance and a great anointing will sweep over the covenant people of God. Will it trigger the great End Time Revival, the one Joel and Isaiah and Hosea and all the other prophets spoke about? Is it possible that we shall yet see the true and genuine Latter Rain outpouring?

*The Great
End-Time Revival*

If this is so then what would be God's purpose in this? Might we expect God's Holy Spirit Outpouring to guide and to empower His saints as they make their stand for Him in the latter days? And will this End-Time Revival among God's covenant people be happening at the very same time as the Great End-Time Falling Away? . . . Quite possibly so.

A Diagrammatic Representation Showing how the Epic Apostasy of the End-Time Is Overshadowed By the Glory of the True and Genuine Latter Rain Revival of Joel Chapter 2.

In Leviticus 23 the God of Israel through Moses lays out Yom Teruah as a “Day of Blowing” as of trumpets. It is also stated to be a memorial day. Why is Yom Teruah to be a memorial? This will certainly be a day in which God’s people remember their God and call out to Him to remember them. But is there more to the story?

Leviticus 23

24. Speak 1696 unto the children 1121 of Israel 3478, saying 559, In the seventh 7637 month 2320, in the first 259 [day] of the month 2320, shall ye have a sabbath 7677, a memorial 2146 of blowing 8643 of trumpets, an holy 6944 convocation 4744.

25. Ye shall do 6213 no servile 5656 work 4399 [therein]: but ye shall offer 7126 an offering made by fire 801 unto the LORD 3068.

This memorial issue is a big lead worthy of our study. On that epic future Yom Teruah the people of the eternal covenant will stop in their tracks. They will remember their God in a very public way. At the sounding of the Teruah His covenant people will be calling upon their God to re-member them, His dis-membered people in their hour of need. This two way calling to re-membrance between God and His called out people is a consequence of the Everlasting Covenant, the Abrahamic covenant that blossoms forth in the New Covenant.

Feast of Trumpets

There is yet another more somber reason why Yom Teruah may become a memorial day with the blowing of trumpets. A good investigator taps into leads such as this one.

Because we are looking at a memorial that according to Psalm 81 occurs on a new moon and on a solemn feast day. But we shall have to pursue this clue in another video.

The word Teruah does not mean trumpet. This is our big neglected clue. The Teruah is the divine “wake-up call” of God. It is His Voice, His inspiration coming to us IN the blowing of the trumpet, IN the shout, IN the joyful sound etc.. So it seems that on some awesome future Jewish New Year Someone will be speaking to His people and through His people and rather loudly. God will be calling out in and to His people in and through all these many and varied expressions of the Teruah.

He IS the awakening in the trumpet blast, He IS the joy in the joyful sound, He IS the exaltation in the clashing of cymbals, the One who overflows by His Holy Spirit. Yom Teruah is most often referred to as Rosh Hashanah, the Jewish New Year. Christians use the term Feast of Trumpets. But the Biblical name for the feast, has been neglected. The phrase Yom Teruah just gets a mere 1% of the Google inquiries. And yet the word Teruah is all through the Scriptures. It occurs 33 times in the King James Bible. Sadly, there is almost no Bible teaching on the word Teruah. So the true meaning of the feast remains hidden. So lets look at these passages to see how the word Teruah is used throughout the Bible. This will give us further insight into what will actually be happening on that momentous future Yom Teruah.

The Hebrew word TERUAH signifies REVIVAL & EXALTATION!

Lev. 23:24 “the blowing of trumpets.”

Num. 10:5 & 5 “blow an alarm.”

Num. 23:21 “the shout of a king.”

Num. 29:1 “the blowing of trumpets.”

Jos. 6:5 “a great shout and the wall will come down”.

2Chr. 13:12 “priests with sounding trumpets to cry alarm.”

Ezr. 3:12 “the foundation laid, .. many shouted aloud for joy.”

Psa. 27:6 “I will offer, ..sacrifices of joy, ...I will sing praises.”

Psa. 33:3 “sing .. a new song, .. skilfully with a loud noise.”

Psa. 89:15 “Blessed are the people who know the joyful sound.”

Psa. 150:5 “praise Him upon the high sounding cymbals.”

Jer. 4:19 “the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.”

Amos 2:2 “Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting,”

Zep. 1:16 “the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities,”

Biblical Christians enjoy a two way communication with God. The Teruah will see an outpouring of God's anointing and an upwelling response echoing back to Him from His people. Yom Teruah is the next blow-out event in future holy history. God's covenant people will be in a crisis. They'll be facing a political and a religious bust. The national sovereignty of their country and their personal freedom will be in jeopardy. Many will be angry at God for not rapturing them. Many will fall away in apostasy. But as the shofars sound the Elect will look up and remember their God. Their eyes will be upon Him and Him alone. On that day as they remember the eternal covenant a wave of repentance will break forth. Prayers and supplications will go up to heaven. The true and genuine latter rain will fall and the Holy Spirit will begin to flow in a glorious flooding wave.

Yom Teruah carries with it another important clue. Our Jewish friends know full well that this feast does not herald an epic conclusion or a closure.

Rather, it is an opener into the days of awe. And on top of That we have another big neglected clue here.

The Teruah shofar blast is only the third of the four classic shofar sounds.

1. Tekia,
2. Shevarim,
3. Teruah,

4. Tekia Gedolah.

The Feast of Trumpets is an opener into the days of awe. This is a period of repentance preparing God's people to face the soon coming Day of Atonement. Yom Kippur is a rehearsal of the Judgment at the last day. This ushers in the Day of the Lord, which does indeed close out this age.

The days of awe are preparation days for this. They are days of fasting and prayer, days of deep brokenness and repentance. This applies to all of God's covenant people in both houses of Israel.

So we should be very careful about jumping to conclusions about what we would like to think will fulfill Yom Teruah. And we should be especially wary of buying into a line of preaching that is fondly held, popular, and lucrative. Our Jewish brethren will tell us what the Teruah in Yom Teruah really means, . . . if we ask them. And so will our Bible Lexicon, which is readily available online.

The Teruah is an alarm, a call to repentance, and a call to assembly before God. The Teruah is blown to take us into the days of awe and to prepare us for the final Day of Accounting. As we listen to it does the Teruah shofar blast sound like the last call? Does it convey any sense of climax and closure? No it does not. So if the Teruah is not the last trumpet blast then where DO we hear that sense of climax and closure?

(Sound the Teruah)

Now let's ask ourselves this question. If the Teruah is the Last Trump would we not expect sense God's final unction in the sound? Yes, in the Teruah God is calling His people to assemble before Him. But does the Teruah sound like the last call? And in the musical character of the Teruah, those broken staccato notes of alarm, do we discern a spirit of finality, and closure? In the Teruah do we really sense the last call, the grand climax, and the arrival of the Prince of Peace? Or is there another shofar blast that might fit the occasion better?

If we are honest with ourselves we have to conclude that the Teruah does not sound like the last trump. It is not the proper herald for the occasion. The highly broken staccato trumpet sound of the Teruah penetrates the soul like nothing else. It is an alarm, an urgent call to wake up, to assemble before God for a briefing. It is a call to repent, to change our mind, to prepare for a challenge that is now upon us. Biblically and historically the Teruah was blown in response to a clear and present danger or a major security threat. God has always used the Teruah to call His people to Himself to prepare them to face a very significant turn of events and to deliver them from an approaching enemy.

Elements of the Teruah are still with us today. They can be heard in our military bugle calls. These sharply disjointed notes signal the very same sense of alarm. They are a warning, a call to muster or to assembly. See the previous video entitled. “Yom Teruah is an alarm!”

And what might be the cause for such an alarm to be sounded? Well since the future 70th Week of Daniel and the final 7 years of this age is the most important future prophecy we definitely need to look there.

There is a HUGE campaign of disinformation set to cloak, to obfuscate, and to place a religious smoke-screen over the future 70th Week of Daniel. As we see in Psalm 2, the nations will be raging as we approach the climax of the age. Quite clearly, the principalities and powers are terrified. These angelic rulers dread the end-time witness of the saints and tremble at the coming Judgment Day of Messiah at the end of this age. So they storm at Daniel 9:27 and desperately prod their human religious underlings to block God's message. They want to make the future 70th Week of Daniel "go away".

Those final seven years are set to begin in some future year. God's covenant people in both the Jewish and non-Jewish houses of Israel are simply not aware of this. They are either not tuned in to God's program or they are asleep. So, all that being understood, might Yom Teruah be a possible occasion for the watchmen to blow the trumpet, to raise a shout, to sound the alarm?

Here outlined in Daniel 9:27 we can clearly see an occasion for an alarm.

Those final seven years will be initiated by the confirmation of a seven year “covenant with many”.

“And he, (the prince), shall confirm the covenant with many for one week, (“one seven”),” - Dan. 9:27

The 70th Week of Daniel
Seven Biblical (360 day) years

Dan. 9:27
covenant confirmed

Daniel 9:27 is that fourth and final verse of Daniel's prophecy of the 70 weeks. There we see that the starting gun for the final seven years will be the confirmation of a seven year covenant. This covenant, (or treaty), will be unprecedented. It will be a global agreement brokered between a certain “prince” and “many”.

Daniel 9:27:
The confirmation
of a seven year
“covenant with many”.

Jesus tells us something about this man. In John 5:43 Jesus declares that he will “come in his own name”. National Israel and the G-7 nations will confirm a seven year covenant with a man who is a consummate humanist, a narcissist, who cares not a whit about the Judeo-Christian God of Christendom or the God of Israel. Nor will he respect any loyalty to nations or to “God and country”.

John 5:43

“I have come in my Father's name,
and you do not receive me.
If another comes in his own name,
Him you will receive.”

Our national leaders will have just signed away their national sovereignty to a global mega-dealer. Initially he will come onto the scene cloaked in religion. John saw the harlot riding the end-time beast with ten horns. He told us what he saw in Revelation 17. John was absolutely astounded at what he was seeing.

The Harlot is ruling, or trying to rule, during those first 1260 days. She rules during those 3.5 years BEFORE the Great Tribulation.

The significance of this momentous future seven year covenant of Daniel 9:27 cannot be overstated. This will be an unprecedented national and international sovereignty sharing deal.

For the first time in world history a single man will confirm a covenant or make a binding worldwide treaty.

So it must involve the G-8 nations!

We know that this megadeal will involve the nation of Israel because it is at the center of Bible prophecy. I can read His righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps :

Our churchmen pat our shoulders and tell us no. America is not specifically mentioned by name in the Bible. End-time events will leave the US out of the picture, they say. And even if America was involved Christians are going to be raptured “outta here” before any untoward events take place. That’s what we are hearing. But look at this map of airline traffic right now. Just how involved is America and Western Europe, the NATO alliance as we approach the latter days? Are Western Christians really “not in the picture” as we are being told?

Look at this histogram of military expenditures. The top nation spends more money on its military than all the other nations in the world put together.

Global Military Spending 2009 (Billions of $)

And there is no doubt about which nation we are talking about here. So are our Bible teachers correct? Are the Western nations really “not in the picture” as they affirm?

Global Military Spending 2009 (Billions of $)

Daniel 7 provides some further information emphasizing our importance in the events of the time of the end. When we do our homework and study the Hebrew word “qodam” in Daniel 7:7 we realize that the first three world powers mentioned, the lion with eagle’s wings, the leopard, and the bear are not “before” as “in a previous time” to the fourth beast. Rather, they are “before” as “in the presence of” the fourth beast.

Heb. “qodam”
Strong’s H6925

New World Order
4th Beast System

The first three powers of Daniel 7 are “qodam”
i.e. “in the presence of” the fourth beast.

So as we see in Daniel 7:7 the first three superpowers mentioned are not “before” as “in a previous time” to the fourth beast. Rather, they are “before” as “in the presence of” the fourth beast.

Daniel 7:7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were H6925 before; = “in the presence of” it, and it had ten horns.

So if the first three beast kingdoms are “in the presence of” the fourth beast then we are bound to conclude that these superpowers are CONTEMPORARIES of the latter day New World Order beast.

New World Order
4th Beast System

The first three beasts of Daniel 7 cannot represent ancient empires.

Matthew Henry published his wonderful Exposition of the Old and New Testaments in 1708. All our Bible commentators since him have affirmed that the first three beasts in Daniel 7 are repeat representations of what we see in the image of Daniel 2 and represent Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, and Rome.

But the lion with eagle's wings, the leopard, and the bear we see in Daniel 7 cannot be recaps of those past Empires we see outlined in Daniel 2 as our Bible commentaries tell us. They cannot be repeat representations of the ancient empires of Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, and Rome we saw featured in the statue described in Daniel chapter 2.

Apparently our God knew all about our modern superpowers 2600 years ago. He instructed the angel Gabriel to tell Daniel all about us. This was way back in 537 B.C.! He knew that in modern times these superpowers would rise up and become associated with these beasts. Are we OK with that?

These characterizations of certain superpowers associated with certain animals are not strange to us. We see them all the time and put them in special places in our mind. This image here might be politics or perhaps comedy. But we don't see it as Bible prophecy, do we?

We put things in boxes and have trouble thinking outside the box. We were run through the Greek culture 2300 years ago and Hellenized. The Greeks taught us to think in boxes with concepts, ideas, and abstracts, all neatly filed away in compartments.

POST-WAR NEW WORLD MAP
as the U.S.A., with the cooperation of the Democracies of Latin-America, the British Commonwealth of Nations and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, assumes world leadership for the establishment of a New World Moral Order
for permanent peace, freedom, justice, security and world reconstruction.

"In the future days which we seek to make secure, we look forward to a world founded upon four essential human freedoms.

"The first is freedom of speech and expression—everywhere in the world.

"The second is freedom of every person to worship God in his own way—everywhere in the world.

"The third is freedom from want, which translated into world terms, means economic understandings which will assure to every nation a healthy peaceable life for its inhabitants—everywhere in the world.

"The fourth is freedom from fear, which translated into world terms, means a worldwide reduction of armaments to such a point and to such a degree that no nation will be in a position to menace an ally of a peaceful nation any other nation—anywhere in the world.

From President Roosevelt's message to the 75th Congress on the State of the Union.

Our Policy shall be this:

1. We, the U.S.A., in cooperation with our allies, for reasons of our national safety and in the interest of international morality, are determined to use every means completely necessary to accomplish this task.
 2. The old world order of colonial oppression, exploitation of dominions, rival imperialisms and unscrupulous balance of power diplomacy; of injustice, dictators, privileged minorities, plutocracies and similar social parasitism; the corrupted order responsible for the present world catastrophe, shall never rise again.
 3. A New World Moral Order for permanent peace and freedom shall be established at the successful conclusion of the present war.
 4. For reasons of history, economic structure, favorable geography and the welfare of mankind, the U.S.A., most altruistically, assumes the leadership of the newly established, democratic world order.
 5. To reduce the burden and criminal waste of armaments expenditures everywhere in the world, the U.S.A., in cooperation with Latin-America, the British Commonwealth of Nations, and the U.S.S.R., shall undertake to guarantee peace in the nations which will be permanently disarmed and demilitarized after the conclusion of the present war.
 6. In order to be able, in fulfillment of our obligations, to effectively prevent the possibility of a recurrence of another world catastrophe, the inalienability of the U.S.A., as a military, naval and air power, shall be the major prerequisite.
 7. For realistic considerations of strategy and our inalienable security, it is imperative that the U.S.S.A. shall obtain relinquishment of controls of their possessions from all foreign Powers in the entire Western Hemisphere, its surrounding waters and strategic island outposts as outlined on accompanying map.
 8. For considerations of hemispheric defense and in the spirit and tradition of the new Monroe Doctrine of hemispheric solidarity and the "Good Neighbor" policy, the U.S.A., with the consent of the Latin-American Republics, shall obtain control and protective rights of the relinquished territories.
 9. To strengthen our position in the Caribbean area which is of obvious importance to hemispheric defense, all possible instruments shall be used to our advantage of Central America and the West Indies to facilitate their entrance as equal states of the U.S.A. as outlined on map.
 10. To fulfill the politico-economic unity of the Western Hemisphere, the U.S.S.A. shall promote and assist the unification of South America into a well organized, democratic, federated "United States of South America."
 11. The liberated British, French and Netherlands Guianas shall be recognized as one state of the U.S.A.
 12. All Powers shall relinquish their controls of their colonial, mandate and strategic island possessions everywhere in the world.
 13. The British Commonwealth of Nations, the second military and naval Power of importance operating in a binding compact with the U.S.A. as a Power for freedom, shall retain and acquire control of such territories, peace-sectors, lanes and strategic island outposts, peace-sectors, lanes and strategic island outposts as outlined on map.
 14. The areas known as Netherlands, Belgium, Luxemburg, Switzerland, France, Spain, Portugal, Iceland, Serbia, and Croatia shall be united as a demilitarized, federated "United States of Scandinavia."
 15. A World League of Nationalities with arbitration and supervision powers shall be organized.
 16. A World Court with punitive powers of absolute boycott, quarantine, blockade, and occupation by international forces against lawbreakers of international morality shall be organized.
 17. The U.S.A., with the close cooperation of the United States of South America, the British Commonwealth of Nations, the U.S.S.R. and the World League of Nationalities, shall promote and assist in the unification of the relinquished territories and the areas at present unpeacefully divided into well organized, democratic and absolutely demilitarized federated republics as approximately outlined on map.
 18. The areas known as Greece, Macedonia, Albania, Crete, Indonesia and adjacent islands in the Aegean sea shall be united as a demilitarized "Federated Republic of Greece."

 37. All resources, industrial and labor capacity of the quarantined areas shall be employed for the post-war restoration and reconstruction needs.
 38. To reduce the material power of the aggressor nations, as a potential military advantage, a Population Control Policy shall be elaborated and applied in the quarantined areas.
 39. In the New World Moral Order which we seek to establish—the essential political freedoms, the imperious following fundamental economic change are imperative:
 - (a) Nationalization of all natural resources and equitable distribution of same to all nations—everywhere in the world.
 - (b) Nationalization of international banking, foreign investments, railroads and power plants—everywhere in the world;
 - (c) Nationalization of all armaments producing establishments by all remaining military powers;
 - (d) Federal control of foreign commerce and shipping;
 - (e) The establishment of a world common market system;
 - (f) World-wide limitations of interest rates to a maximum of two percent.
 40. To retain the victory and leadership of our undemocratic effort—the aim of which is not vengeance or exploitation, but freedom and security to all nations for general progress—the unified "Supreme War Council of the United Nations" at the conclusion of the present war, shall be recognized and transferred to a permanent "Supreme Military and Economic Council" collaborating with the World League of Nationalities in post-war reconstruction and to enforce world peace.
 41. The "Supreme Military and Economic Council" shall appoint the Governors to administer the quarantined areas until their eventual parole.

Regrettably God's covenant people are not being taught Bible prophecy, nor are we studying God's Holy Word for ourselves. Many great end-time truths are sitting right there in front of us. But we are not awake enough to see them. The Western Church is asleep. She is in fact the quintessential Sleeping Beauty of literature, legend, and lore. And the poisoned apple of false religion is there in her mouth, doping her, and keeping her that way, lest she awaken to her glorious high calling.

So as we are beginning to see, this Day of the Teruah, this wake-up call will be a very necessary one. The Feast of Trumpets will herald the beginning of the final seven years of this present evil age. This in turn will lead up to the Day of Atonement. Then follows Apocalypse, or unveiling of Messiah in the Day of the Lord.

The Final 7 Years of This Age

Some are saying that the future 70th Week and the time of Jacob's trouble is just for Israel. Similarly they say that the Seventy Weeks prophecy was a message for "Daniel's people", i.e. the Jews. But Biblical prophecy is not limited to the royal Jewish house of Judah or just the land of Israel as we have been told. Daniel's people are a much bigger company. The promise given to Abraham was that His Seed (singular), (who is Christ), would become a "melo-hagoyim", a huge multitude of Gentiles or nations more numerous than the stars of heaven.

Gen. 17:3-5

³ And Abram fell on his face: and God talked with him, saying, ⁴ "As for me, behold, my covenant is with thee, and thou shalt be a father of many nations. ⁵ Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but thy name shall be Abraham; for a father of many nations have I made thee."

In Galatians 3:29 our Apostle Paul confirms this identification. He says quite plainly that those who are in Christ are by virtue of their union with Him now Abraham's Seed.

They have become "heirs according to the promise."

Galatians 3:29 King James Version

“And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise..”

Young's Literal Translation

And if ye are of Christ then of Abraham ye are seed, and according to promise -- heirs.

Aramaic Bible in Plain English

And if you are of The Messiah, you are therefore the seed of Abraham and heirs by The Promise.

That promise given to Abraham was of a land with a Holy City not made with hands, and a multitude of descendants. Abraham was given that promise right back at the beginning. If we are in Christ then we too are just as much the children of Abraham and Daniel's people as the people of faith who went before us. If Christ, the Seed of Abraham, is within us, then that promise and the responsibility that goes with it too!, is ours.

A Land, and a Holy City not made with hands.

A melo-hagoyim,
a multitude of descendants..

29 And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise. - Galatians 3:29

Our apostle Paul unveils the story further in Ephesians 2:12-13. There we read that through the atoning blood of Christ people from any nation, race, or tribe come into the Commonwealth or citizenship of Israel.

Commonwealth of Israel

So even if our country is dissolved in a New World Order or we are exiled, or worse, we do have hope. Because in Christ we do belong to another country.

So we can be issued with a new and very wonderful passport. And our pilgrimage towards that ultimate “city upon a hill” goes on.

Here is that hidden scripture outlining our citizenship in Israel through the blood of Christ. This is something no-one wants to talk about. If you wish you can pause the video and take a close look at what God is telling us here.

¹² That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth / citizenship of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world:

¹³ But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. - Ephesians 2:12-13.

In Isaiah 49:6 we read that Greater Israel is destined to become a huge international company. Daniel's people include all who have been apprehended and rise and shine in Christ, the Light of Israel.

Through Christ, the Light to the Gentiles extends right on out across space and time to the ends of the earth and shines right through the end of the age.

⁶ And he said, It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant to raise up the (12) tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

- Isaiah 49:6

In Revelation chapter 7 John sees the 12 tribes of Israel restored and a special company of 144,000. Then the spotlight moves on to the Tribulation Saints, and an innumerable multitude from every nation, race and tribe. All of them are wearing white robes.

So Christ our Messiah will be gathering in all who are His at the end of the age. And as we have seen, the timeline of the final seven years fits precisely between those first two Fall Feasts. From ancient times the days between these two feasts have been called the days of awe. They cap off the season of repentance our Jewish friends rehearse every year. So here is a question. Could those final seven years be the ultimate days of awe?

The Final 7 Years of this age
= 1260 + 1290 = 2550 days

*Feast of Trumpets
Tishrei 1*

*Day of Atonement

Days of Awe
(7 years)

*The inclusive Timeline bridging those Fall
Feasts is also precisely 2550 DAYS!

Those ten days between the feasts are a season of fasting and sanctification. And from Yom Teruah, or the Feast of Trumpets, the Days of Awe run up to peak on Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement.

TEN DAYS of AWE

*Yom
Teruah
Tishrei 1*

*Day of
Atonement
Tishrei 10*

A Period of DEEP REPENTANCE

So might those final seven years bridging these feasts also be a period of soul searching and of deep repentance, perhaps the ultimate Days of Awe?

DAYS
of AWE

Yom
Teruah
Tishrei 1

Day of
Atonement
Tishrei 10

7 Years of DEEP REPENTANCE

God states that the 70 Weeks of Daniel are the times He Himself has determined, made holy, set apart, or cut out of time, for dealings related to both His Holy City and His Holy People. This will be especially so during those final 7 years.

Daniel 9:24

Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city

Repentance is very necessary. God chastens us. He wants to develop His character in us. We will wrestle with God over the same issues our father Jacob did. The issues of the latter days are monumental. But these trials and tribulations are not the wrath of God upon us. They bring the very necessary refining to change us from shifty dodgy Jacob to Israel, one who has contended and become a prince with God. Back in the former time Jacob underwent this character change through wrestling with God. He struggled with Him all through a dark night of the soul. For us, it will be no different. Because we, the Judeo-Christian people, (and not just our Jewish brethren), are that tricky shyster Jacob. That state of affairs has to change. And by the prophesied trials, tribulations, and refining it will change.

So why is God doing all this? If we look at the burdens of the 70 Weeks of prophecy we find out. The final seven years will come to their appointed climax. And just what will God have achieved in and through His covenant people by their witness and by His climactic return? Here are the bullet points that will wrap up God's agenda. When these jobs are done our Messiah will have returned and be all set to establish His Millennial Kingdom.

1. to finish the transgression,
2. to make an end of sins,
3. to make reconciliation for iniquity,
4. to bring in everlasting righteousness,
5. to seal up the vision and prophecy,
6. and to anoint the most Holy.

- Dan. 9:25

So the days of awe, this season of soul searching and repentance is very necessary. And it begins on Yom Teruah, the Feast of Trumpets. It runs on up through the days of awe to terminate on the ultimate Day of Atonement, Yom Kippur, at the end of this age.

31 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of the LORD come.

32 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be saved / delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.

Joel 2:31-32

THE DAYS OF AWE

Now let's look at another big clue to understanding the Feast of Trumpets. Going back to the former times Yom Teruah has been referred to by the idiom, “the opening of the gates”.

Yom Teruah The Feast of Trumpets

The Opening
of the
Gates

The God of the Bible talks a lot about entering into His gates. And there are lots of sacred songs about this. Who are these people who will enter in through the gates? Here in this verse the God of Israel through the prophet Isaiah in

Isaiah 26:2 says that

“the righteous nation that preserves and upholds the truth will enter in.”

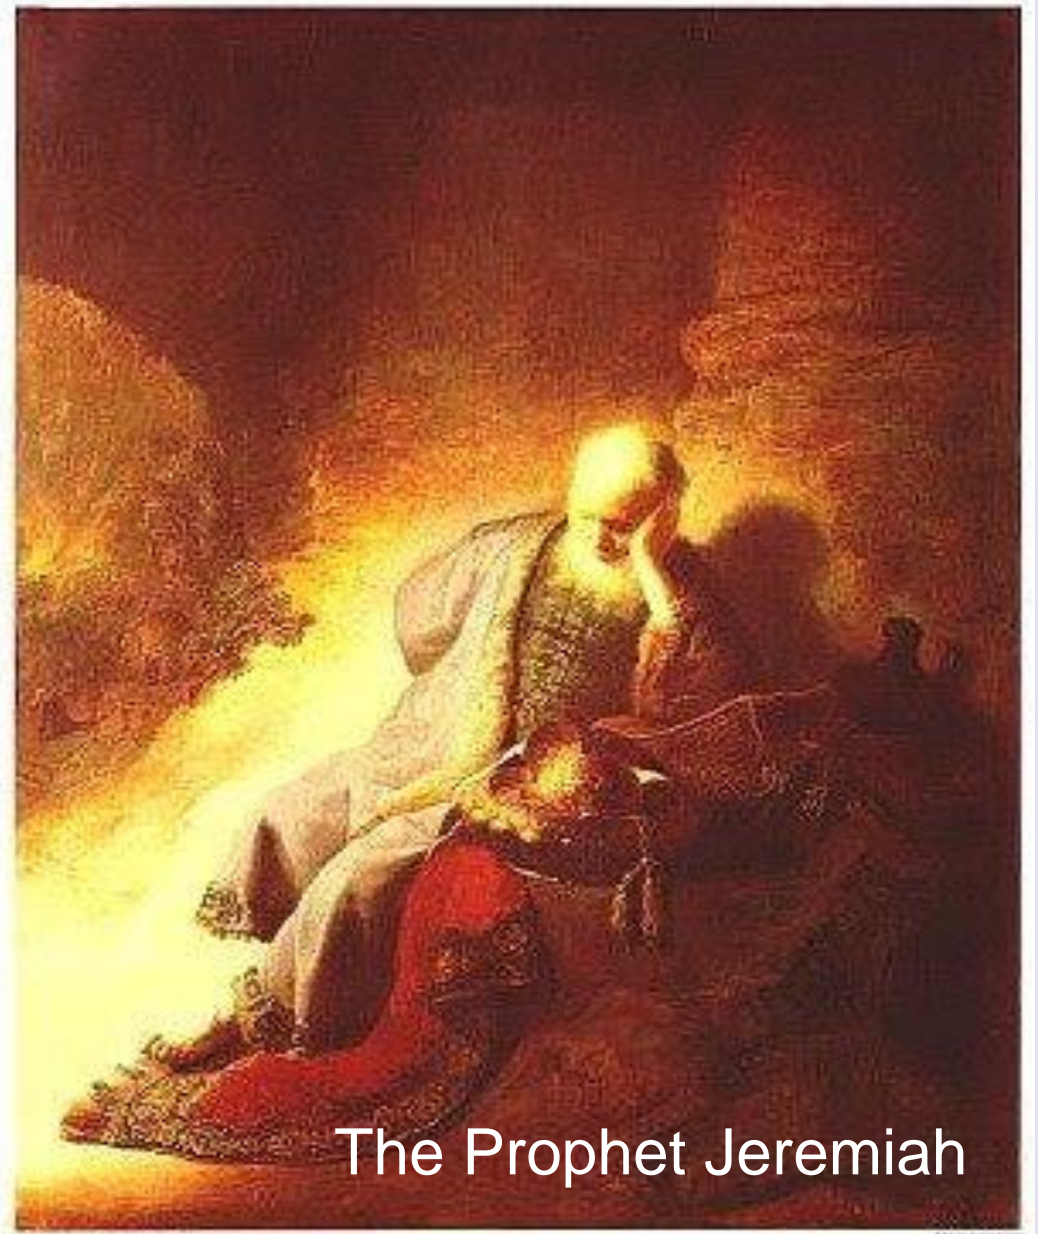

© All rights reserved

Open ye the gates that the righteous
nation which keepeth the truth may enter in.
- Isa. 26:2

In the book of Lamentations the prophet Jeremiah laments the destruction of Jerusalem He especially laments God's covenant people being cut-off from the feasts.

“The ways of Zion do mourn, because none
come to the solemn feasts: all her gates
are desolate: her priests sigh, her
virgins are afflicted,
and she is in bitterness.”

- Lam. 1:4

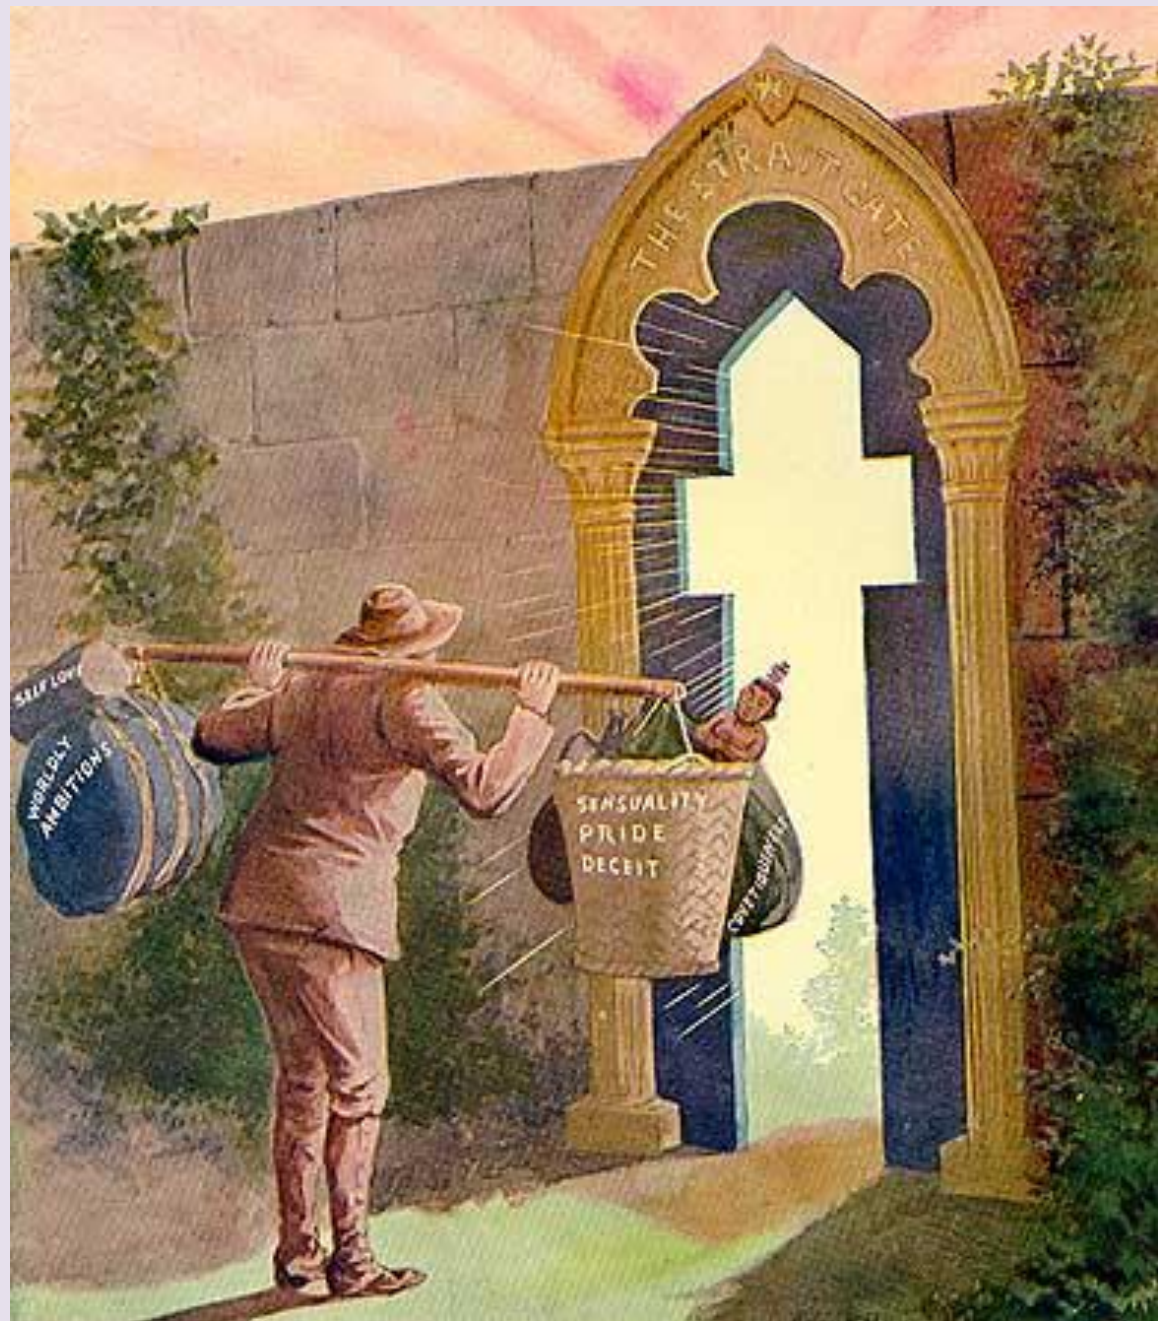

The Prophet Jeremiah

2600 years later this same lament is still just as applicable to us today. And here we are. Nothing much has changed since Jeremiah made that statement. And even today with the best churches and speakers that money can buy how many of God's people gathered in big mega-churches like this are being properly prepared for the latter days? How many even open up their Bibles or access the free online Lexicons to learn about the momentous future fulfillment of Yom Teruah?

So our God, the God of Israel is about to change all that. He is about to open up the gates. He wants to invite His covenant people to walk on in fellowship with Him. But it is a strait and narrow gate. And our entry will require some adjustments on our part. So who is going to help us here?

It seems the Holy One of Israel has made some special arrangements for us. With the Teruah there is good news. This sad state of affairs is about to change. On a blockbuster future Feast of Trumpets, Yom Teruah the watchmen will sound the call. God will give His people strength for the journey and grace for the trials. He will provide help from above, unfailing sympathy, undying love. All this will happen, as they assemble before Him, . . . and Him alone.

Joel 2:1

Blow the trumpet in Zion; sound the alarm on my holy hill. Let all who live in the land tremble, for the day of the LORD is coming. It is close at hand-

On that spellbinding future Yom Teruah He will be opening wide the gates! He will be calling all men to His great salvation, preparing them, and when they can't go on, He will be carrying them across a threshold towards their glorious eternal destiny with Him.

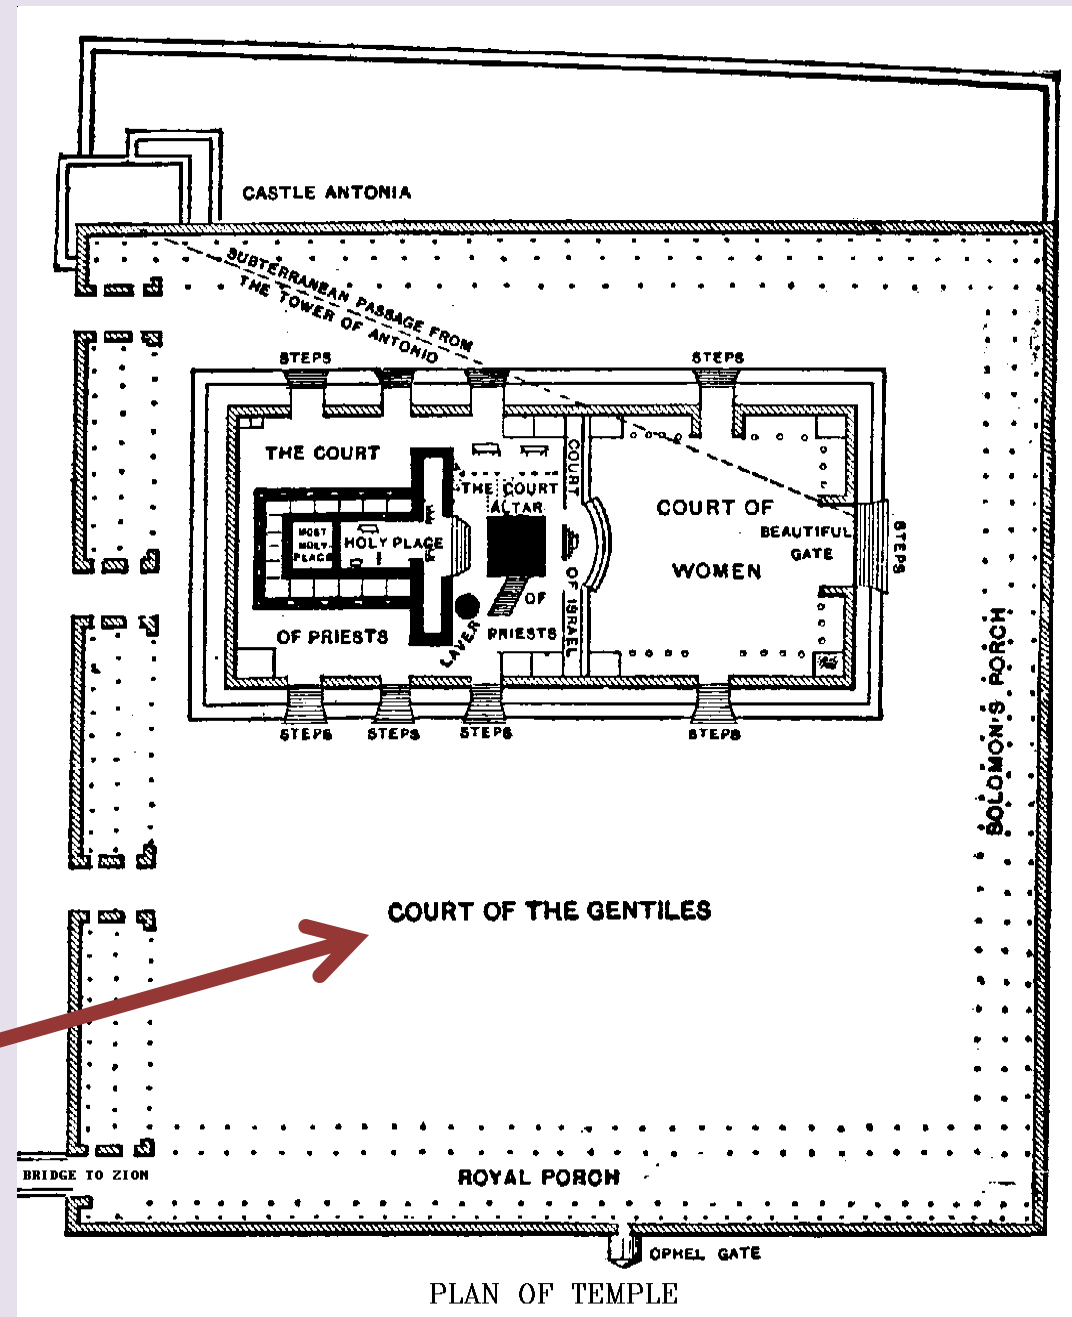

Yom Teruah The Feast of Trumpets

The Opening
of the
Gates

Many scripture passages tell of people from many heathen Gentile nations coming up to Jerusalem. They are received in the outer court, the court of the Gentiles. How is it then that people who enter in as heathen Gentiles go on to enter through that inner gate to be admitted into the sanctuary? How are they adopted into that one single righteous nation Israel, a nation that keeps the truth?

Therefore thy gates shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring unto thee the forces of the Gentiles,
- Isaiah 60:11

Apparently something is happening in the outer court of the Gentiles. There is some sifting and some refining going on.

The prophet Ezekiel tells of a people passing through an inner gate into the inner court. This inner court is variously described as the Court of Priests or the Court of Israel.

This scripture passage from Ezekiel 44:17 describes the future Millennial Temple. It speaks of linen garments and sheds some further light on this subject.

“And it shall come to pass, that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them whilst they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within”.

(i.e. the sanctuary).

- Ezekiel 44:17

And why are these people inside the court of Israel all wearing fine raiment or white linen garments? What is the meaning of fine white linen raiment in Biblical symbology? This is clearly interpreted for us in Revelation 19:8. The fine linen is the righteousness of the saints.

And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of the saints.

- Revelation 19:8

And in the previous verse, Revelation 19:7 we see another clue that helps us understand the meaning of the “fine linen, clean and white.” It seems to be a picture of the white raiment worn by a bride as she prepares to go to her wedding. The imagery here is showing the ultimate holy or set-apart state of God’s covenant people as they go out through a dark night to meet the Bridegroom.

“Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.”

- Revelation 19:7

We get another view of this matter of preparation with the story Jesus told us of a wedding party preparing to go out to meet the Bridegroom. It is the parable of the ten virgins. Some were prepared. And some were not.

In Revelation 21 we see the Bride of the Lamb positively identified for us as the Holy City, the New Jerusalem, and within the City all her People.

So Yom Teruah is an entrée into a time of refinement. We see a major clue to Yom Teruah in Joel chapter 2. The God of Israel is calling all His people to assembly. So those final seven years are a period of re-gathering. The God of Israel will be calling all His people to sanctify themselves before Him because He will soon be returning as King of kings. The true priests and ministers will be like the rest of us. They will be repenting, weeping between the porch and the altar.

Joel 2: ¹⁵ Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly: ¹⁶ Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. ¹⁷ Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the altar,

A time of refining is not as “negative” as we might think. God’s true covenant people will not fall away in anger. This may be a season of good grief but not bad grief. There will be refining, like the refining of fine linen, as a heckle refining flax. This is the way impurities are removed to make fine linen for white raiment.

Our verse in Joel 2 speaks of the Trumpet being blown on “a day of clouds and thick darkness”. Have we heard any mention of a day of clouds and thick darkness before?

“Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the Day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand; A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, . . .”

- Joel 2:1-2a

Indeed we have. In Ezekiel 34:12 we read, “As a shepherd seeks out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day.” This is our God of mercy at work. This is what He will be doing even in the midst of the Great Tribulation as the dreadful Day of the Lord draws near.

As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day.

So why is the Holy One of Israel opening the gates and bidding His people to go through the gates at the time of Yom Teruah? Why is He clearing the highway and lifting up a standard for the people? It seems that He wants to gather in as many people as He can into His sanctification and refinement. Because the end of the age draws near and with it the Judgment, the Day of Reckoning, or Day of Atonement. Then time will have run out. The Day of the Lord will open up and He will loose and send forth the angels of the harvest.

© All rights reserved

Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up a standard for the people.
- Isa. 62:10

The song

“Go through the gates”

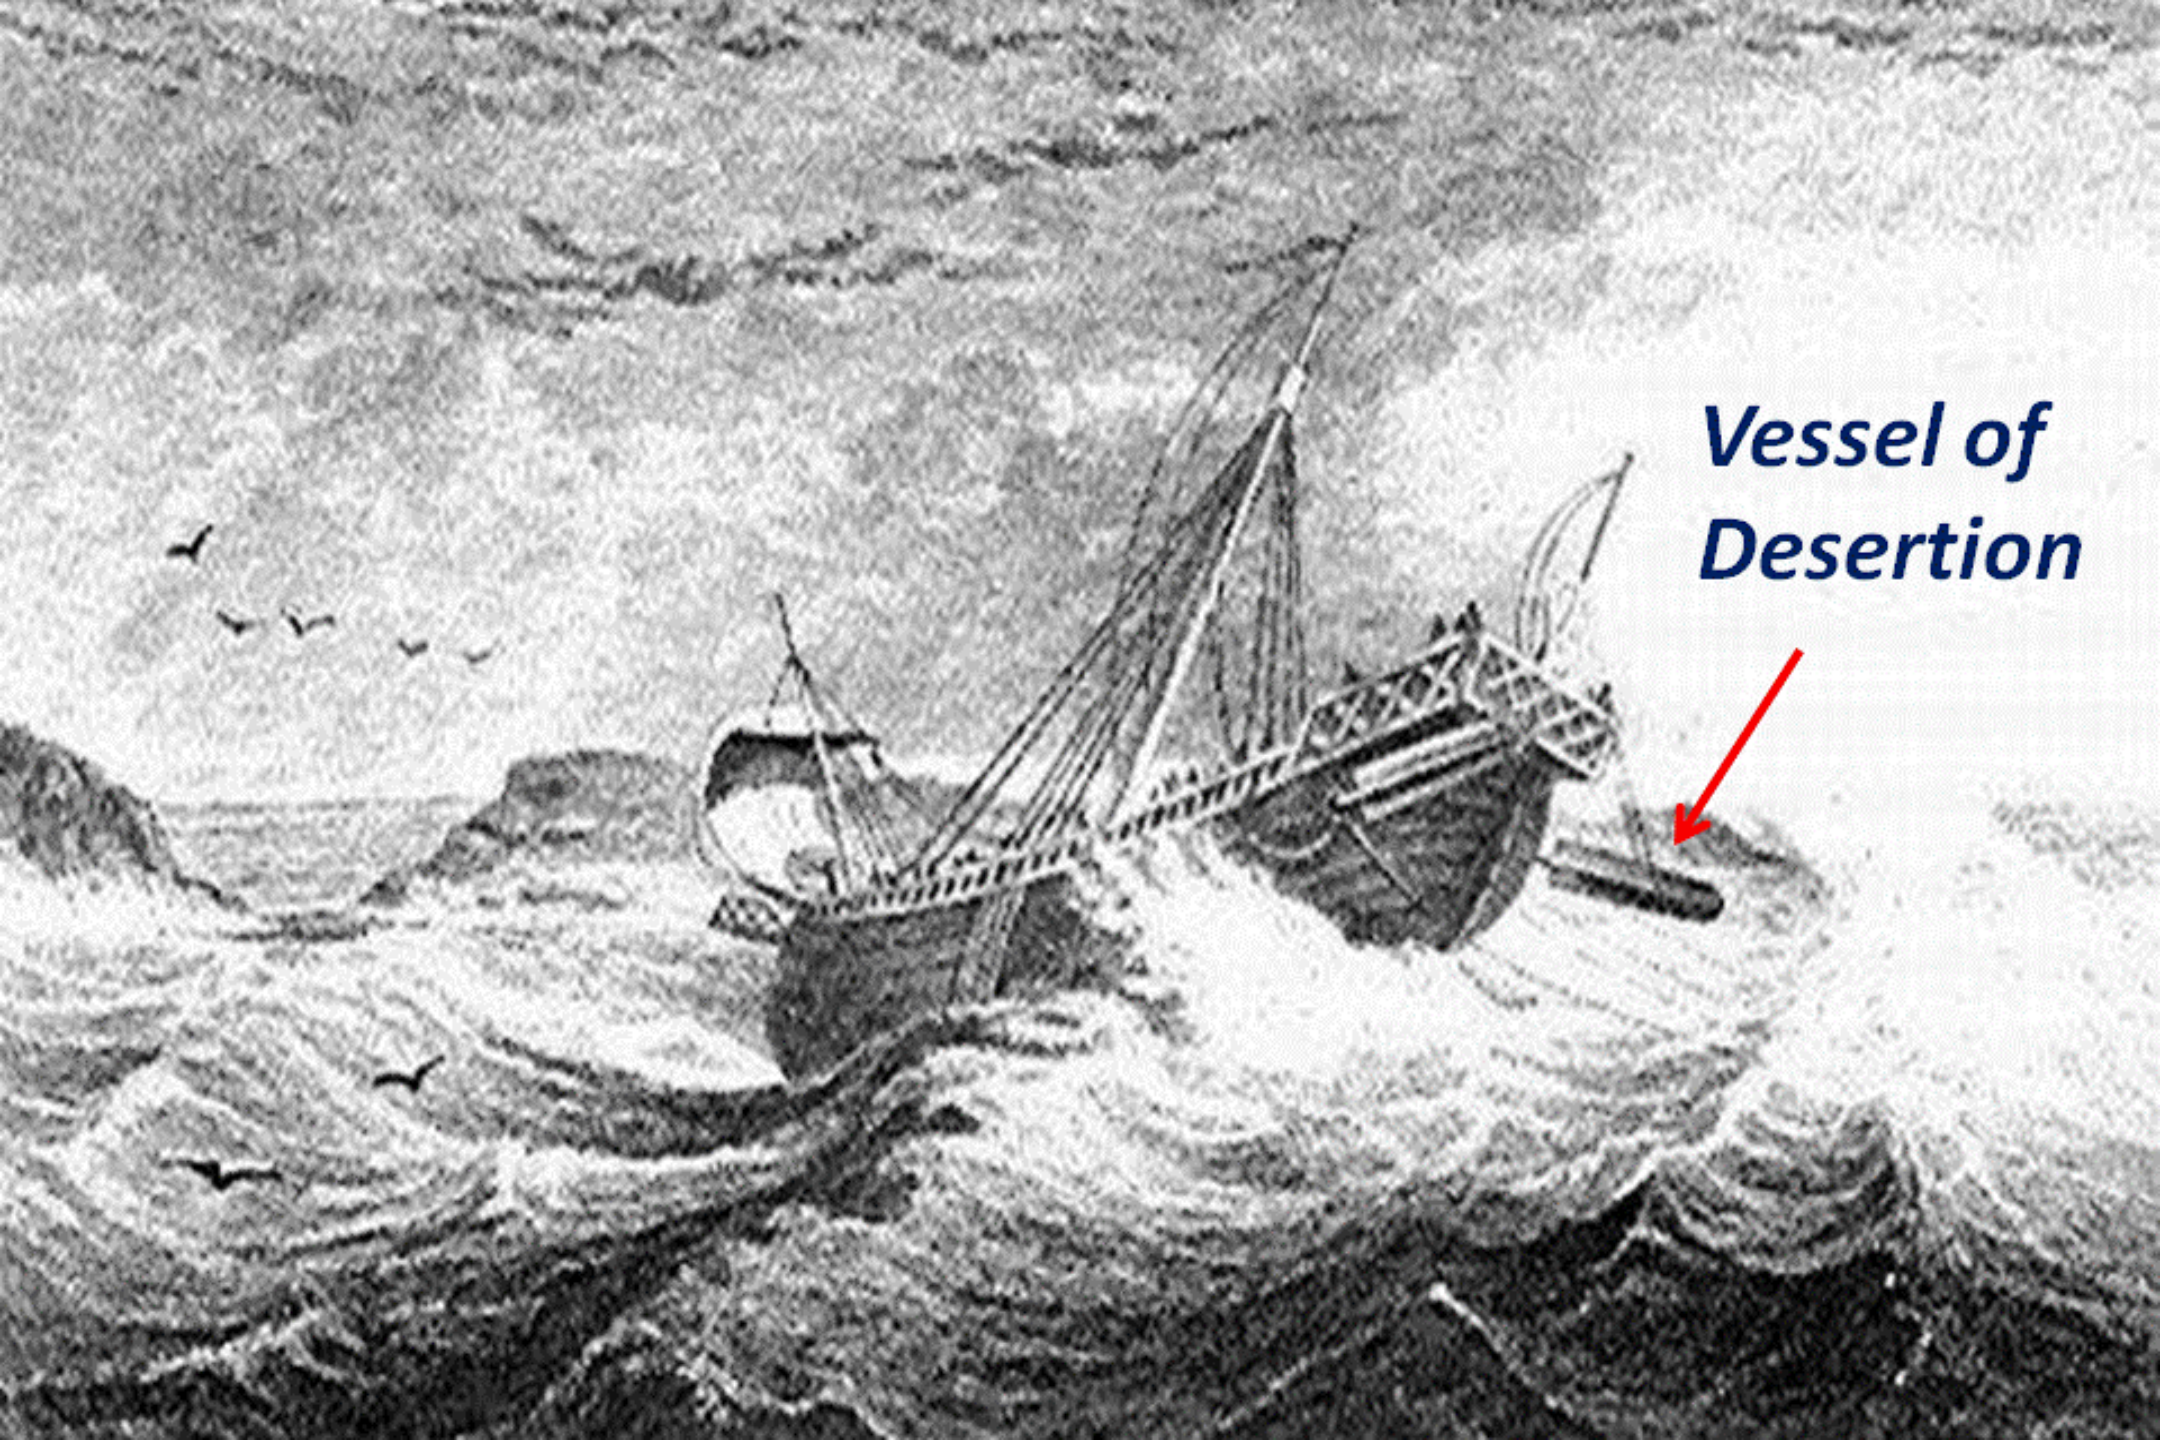

So will the Resurrection-Rapture come on the Feast of Trumpets as most of our dispensational churchmen are saying? At this point in our study we see no evidence for that. It seems that on a day that will shake all nations the Teruah shofar blasts God will be calling all men to be holy or “set apart” to Him. Like a loving father with His children, our God wants to gather and spend some “quality time” with His covenant people.

A vibrant sunset scene with a bright sun low on the horizon, creating a lens flare effect. The sky transitions from a deep purple at the top to a bright orange and yellow near the sun, and then to a dark, almost black horizon. The overall mood is serene and majestic.

"The LORD is in his holy temple:
let all the earth keep silence
before him,"

Habakkuk 2:20

If God wants to save as many people as He can why are we, His people destined for this rough passage? Perhaps He wants all hands on deck, even as a captain needs his crew to stay with him during a tempest. Acts 27 describes the shipwreck of the Apostle Paul. The ship was being driven onto a lee to shore in a tempest. Four anchors from the stern held the ship. At midnight Paul saw a strange sight. The crew were furtively lowering the lifeboat. They were deserting. They were skipping out to save their lives before the voyage came to its final frightening climax. The Apostle Paul took a dim view of this and alerted the captain who put a stop to the cowardly act. The crew had been commissioned to serve to the end of the journey.

Vessel of Desertion

How about us as born-again Biblical Christians? When does our journey end? When does our commission expire? Is it at the end of the age? Or is it seven years before that? Should we take this document, the Great Commission, to our lawyer and ask him to tell us? Or can we read what is written ourselves?

The Great Commission

¹⁹ Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, ²⁰ teaching them to observe all that I commanded you;. And Lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age. - Mat. 28:19-20

“The opening of the gates” is a time of soul searching, tears, and repentance. But there is joy as well. In the Psalms we read the songs of ascent. We sing about entering His gates with thanksgiving in our hearts and entering His courts with praise. Just as Hosea did with wayward Gomer, God is wooing us back to Himself. He is drawing us, calling us to go up on that highway of holiness and to meet with Him in His sanctuary. In the Hebrew dancing we hear songs of joyful invitation to “Go through the gates”, and “prepare the way of the people”. The God of Israel is throwing open the gates to His Holy Place. He wants us go up to Zion in joyful praise. This is another wonderful item of Hebrew art by Yossi Rosenstein. His works can be found online at art.com.

Yousi Rosenstein

By now we are starting to get an idea of where this all ends. The days of awe come to a climax and end on Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement. In Hebrew tradition this is the last chance to repent for that year. As the sun sets on this Day of Reckoning this awesome moment of closure is referred to by the well known Hebrew idiom, “the closing of the gates”.

*Yom Kippur
The Day of Atonement*

*The Closing

Now lets take a closer look at the terminus of those 7 years. That fearful final Day of Atonement.

Our search for the true meaning and the ultimate fulfillment of the Day of Atonement must of necessity take us to the synagogue and the celebration and the annual rehearsal of Yom Kippur by our Jewish friends. The final service on Yom Kippur at sunset is called the Neilah. The rabbis say that as the awesome day of Yom Kippur comes to a close their future is being sealed. They turn to God to accept their sincere repentance and new resolutions. They ask that He seal them in the Book of Life, granting them a new year replete with goodness and happiness.

The Ark housing the Torah scrolls remains open right up until the end of the Neilah service, signifying that the Gates of Heaven are still wide open for prayers and entreaties.

After a final declaration of faith, the shofar sounds climactically with the Tekia Gedolah. Then after some closing prayers the service ends with an awesome moment of closure. Neilah means "closing the gate." As the Neilah service ends the doors to the ark are closed. At that point the clock has run out. There is no more time to have your name inscribed in the Book of Life. As the sun sets on this awesome Day of Judgment those present in the synagogue feel the weight of this awesome moment of finality. Yom Kippur is a rehearsal for that ultimate future Judgment Day when on the last day of this age we stand face to face with God. This an aspect of our Hebrew roots well worth knowing about and actually experiencing.

So here we have some more pieces of the puzzle indicating very strongly that the Fall Feasts do in fact initiate and terminate a very significant future time period marked by repentance. It begins with Yom Teruah which is linked to the “opening of the gates” and ends with the Day of Atonement, or Yom Kippur which features the “closing of the gates”. This is further strong evidence that these two yet to be fulfilled Fall Feasts do provide the appropriate settings for these epic future events as well as mark out a precise timeline for the final 7 years of this age.

Now let's look at the Day of Atonement as a LEGAL MATTER. This final judgment will be handed down by Christ our Messiah and nobody else. So then, is this not the Judgment Seat of Christ? As we saw, Yom Kippur is a rehearsal for that final Judgment Day. And in some future year the tenth day of Tishri will in fact erupt into holy history and world history as the long awaited Day of Reckoning.

The Day of Atonement will be the last day of this present evil age. Most would agree that the very idea of Judgment Day conveys a definite sense of finality and closure. And when the sun sets on the Day of Accounting the Day of the Lord will then open up to EXECUTE the Judgment. With this will come our transport and our assignment to a new destiny, hopefully a good one.

The Final 7 Years of This Age

Yes, Judgment Day is the end of the road for this age, the end of the term, and the final exam in which we pass or fail. After this school “breaks up”. It is very important for us to understand that there are two parts to a judgment. The first part is the legal judgment or the verdict handed down by the court.

A close-up photograph of a hand holding a wooden gavel. The gavel is positioned over a dark, circular gavel rest. The background is dark and out of focus, suggesting a courtroom setting. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the texture of the wood and the hand.

The Judgment: Step 1

The Legal Decision,
the Judgment,
or Verdict

We all stand guilty before God.
Without a an atonement, without someone standing in the gap for us on That Day we will be of all men most miserable.

“For all have

short of the glory of God.”

Romans 3:23

Without a personal covering for sin
on that ultimate Day of Reckoning
our guilty state before a holy God will condemn us to eternal damnation.

The Judgment: Step 1

*The Legal Decision,
Judgment,
or Verdict*

Condemned!

The Scriptures are very plain here.

“How shall we escape, if we neglect so great a salvation.”

- Heb. 2:3

How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord...

—Hebrews 2:3

On that future Day of Accounting those who know Messiah as Savior and Lord will be justified. This justification is not based upon any good works we have done. So how then can we be saved?

The Judgment: Step 1

*The Legal Decision,
Judgment,
or Verdict*

Justified!

The Elect, the Chosen people from both sides of Calvary, are all saved the same way. They are saved by God's grace through their faith in the shed blood of Israel's promised Sacrifice Lamb.

This is the blood we saw featured back in the Spring Feast of Passover. The blood of Israel's Sacrifice Lamb is ultimate and final blood of atonement. That blood was shed 2000 years ago by our Messiah in His first coming in His priestly role as the Suffering Servant.

Judgment Day will surely come, for all of us.

For some the verdict will be “guilty as charged” and for others the verdict will be “not guilty”. Then we come to Step 2 which is the EXECUTION of that judgment. Those who have been justified by faith in our Lord Jesus will be released to Eternal Life. Those who have rejected Him will be condemned to death and eternal separation from God.

Step 1
The Legal
Judgment

Step 2
EXECUTION
of Judgment

Life

Death

We see these same two stages of a Judgment in our courts here below. How will the judgment be executed? In blood covenant matters the person standing trial will either be pardoned or condemned. The execution of the judgment will be either the release of the person or death.

Step 1
The Legal
Judgment

Step 2
EXECUTION
of Judgment

Life

Death

Here on the left is a legal judgment concluding with a verdict and a sentencing handed down by the court. This was one of the Nurenberg trials for a Nazi war criminal. In the legal judgment over on the left this person was found guilty of war crimes and sentenced to death. Over on the right we see the execution of that prior judgment. The condemned man was taken out to the gallows and hanged.

Step 1 The Judgment (Sentencing)

Step 2 The Execution (of Sentence)

So. We have a legal judgment and we have a an execution of that judgment. Which one comes first?

And which one comes after it?

We all should know the answer to that question. In point of fact we all do know it. We know it very well.

Step 1

The Judgment
(Sentencing)

Step 2

The Execution
(of Sentence)

Here we have a happier legal judgment and after that we have a much happier execution of that judgment. In this case a man charged with a crime was found “not guilty”. Evidence involving blood and DNA had proven him innocent and he was pardoned. So here the execution of a judgment was the release of the prisoner. This was a touching story. The previously condemned man and the advocate who had worked tirelessly to secure his justification and release fell in love with each other and married. Wouldn't it be wonderful if Christians fell in love with the Advocate who has loved them and saved them.

Step 1
The Legal
Judgment

Step 2
The Execution
of the Judgment

So does an execution of a judgment precede the judgment? Does a man's hanging or his being set free come before his day in court or after his day in court? Well we know the answer to that question very well. An execution should always follow a proper legal judgment, right? This is the normal procedure of righteous law. We have seen this sequence played out many times.

Step 1
The Legal
Judgment

Step 2
EXECUTION
of Judgment

Life

Death

OK, now, let's look at our own day in court, our own Judgment Day. Our Judgment and that of everyone else will come down on the Day of Atonement, on the last day of this age. Let's consider the sequence we should expect for Judgment Day and the execution of that judgment.

Copyright 2005 Ted Larson

The execution of all the verdicts handed down at Judgment Day will follow quickly. At sunset of that last day of this age the Day of the Lord will open up. The heavens will unfold as a scroll, space-time will unzip and a vortex will open up between heaven and earth. This will be the opening of the Day of the Lord. Out of this portal his will come angels of the Harvest Jesus spoke about in Matthew 13.

We are ALL going before the throne of God on that last day to face the Judgment. An idiom for the Day of Atonement is this matter of being “face to face” with God. No one passes into their eternal destiny without passing by Messiah at the Judgment Seat of Christ.

The Bible lays this out very clearly.
In 1Corinthians 5:10 we read; “For we must ALL appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that everyone may be recompensed for the things done in His body, according to what he has done, whether it be good or bad.”

“For we must ALL appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that everyone may be recompensed for the things done in His body, according to what he has done, whether it be good or bad.”

And no unsaved adult living mortal person alive on this earth at the end of this age will enter the Millennium of Messiah without going through the Sheep-Goat Judgment.

So the Judgment will come at the end of this age. After the judgment comes the execution of that judgment. This is precisely the same sequence of events we see in courts all around the world. It is the pattern we have seen since ancient times. After Messiah renders His judgment the harvest angels will be loosed to execute the judgment.

How will Messiah judge us? Will it be on the basis of the preponderance of our good works? No, every person falls short there. As the Scriptures declare, “All our works of righteousness are as filthy rags.”

So then. By what means then can we hope to be justified before a holy God?

A photograph of a person standing on a narrow, ornate metal bridge that spans a deep chasm between two rocky cliffs. The bridge is supported by a tall, lattice-structured tower on the right side. The sky is filled with white and grey clouds, with a bright yellow light source visible in the upper left corner. The overall scene conveys a sense of risk and achievement.

Good Works Religion

The Bible declares that it is “Not by works of righteousness that we have done
but according to His mercy He saves us.”

Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us.

Titus 3, 5a

So then, just how are we to avail ourselves of God's mercy? How are we to be saved from the wrath to come?

In Ephesians 2:8-9 our Apostle Paul declares, "For it is by grace that you have been saved, through faith, and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God, not of works, lest any man should boast."

FREE GIFT OF SALVATION

*For by grace you have been saved
Through faith,
And that not of yourselves;
It is the gift of God,
Not of works,
Lest anyone should boast.*

Eph 2:8-9

So God has extended His grace to us. But how can a just God let us off the hook? The wages of sin is death and all of us are guilty sinners. Who is going to be covering for us here?

It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the Living God.

Remember what happened back at Sinai? Moses had to put up boundary markers to protect the children of Israel lest God's wrath flash out. They could not even approach the mountain of God.

This wonderful image is by the Jewish artist Eizen. I purchased a print of this from Dov at the bookstore in the Jewish quarter of Jerusalem. Prints like this and many others are available online at art.com.

So how can we come face to face with the Judge of the Universe given our sinful fallen state? How are we to be justified before a righteous holy God? Who is covering for us here? And just how is our Savior covering for us on Judgment Day?

The Day of Atonement is a Day of Covering for sin. This is a kippah, in Jewish tradition and symbology it is a covering for the head. This is a wonderful reminder for us of our sinful condition before a holy God and our need for a covering before Him. But on that awesome Day of Reckoning, Day of Reconciliation of Accounts, Day of Atonement, we are going to need more than a kippah. How then can we hope to be saved from the wrath of God?

We find our answer here. The Ark of the Covenant was showcased in the former times under Moses and under the Levitical priesthood. The High Priest went into the Holy of Holies to minister here once a year.

That day happened to be the Day of Atonement, Yom Kippur, the Day of Covering. The two angels are looking down at the mercy seat that sits atop the Ark.

These are the two witnesses that stand before the Lord of the earth. They are witness to a climactic blood atonement that will ultimately unfold on the last day of this age up in the heavenly sanctuary.

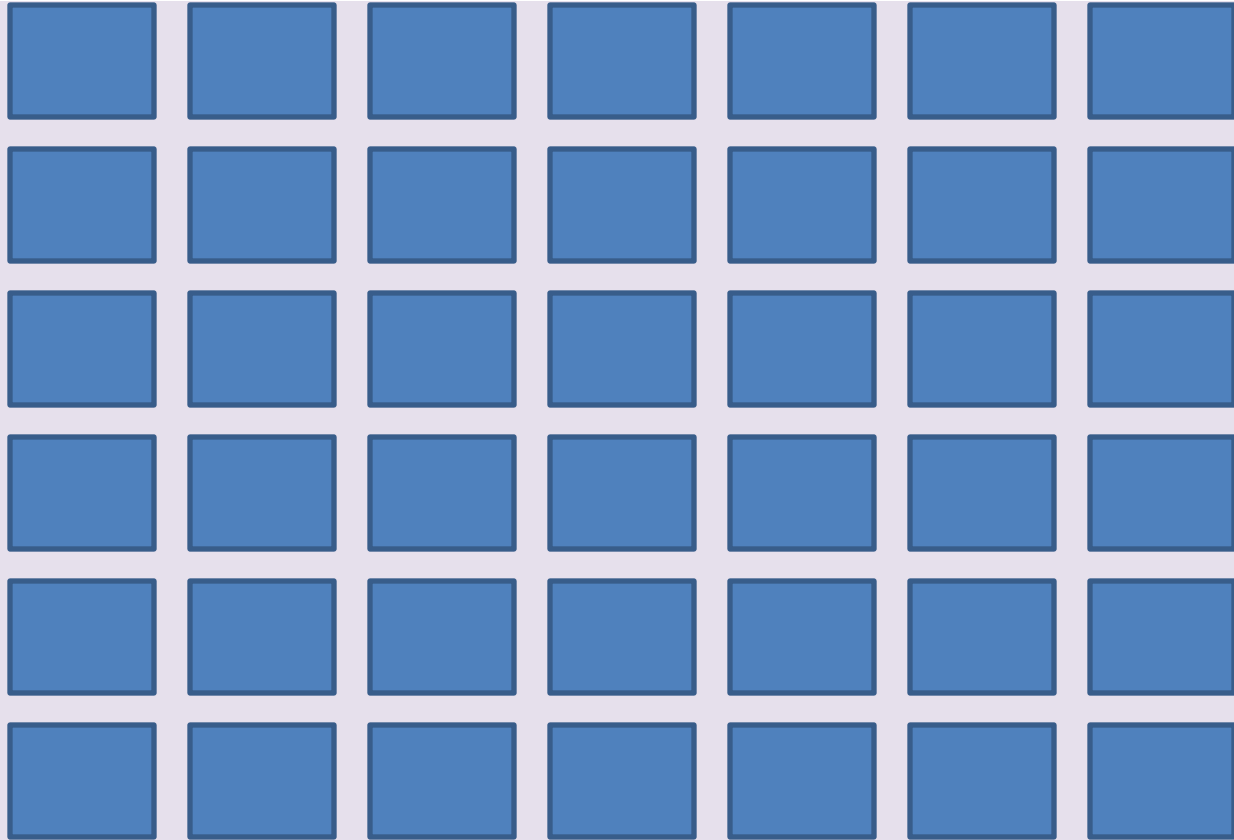

And this is where that blood of atonement came from. Our Savior was Israel's promised Sacrifice Lamb, slain from the foundation of the world. This blood, shed at Calvary on Passover by the sinless spotless Lamb of God purchased our salvation. This blood is the only blood that can cleanse us from sin. This blood is the only blood covering acceptable for that ultimate atonement. Was the blood shed back at Calvary applied to the mercy seat right then and there? Was the blood of atonement applied to the mercy seat when we were saved? No it was not. This ultimate final service performed by our High Priest awaits the final ingathering, and the ultimate Day of Atonement.

SPAS

We can trace the blood of the Lamb of God in the Seventy Weeks prophecy from the terminus of the 69 weeks and Calvary and then onward across a gap of 2,000 odd years. The future 70th Week will end and on the Day of Atonement the blood of atonement will be applied to the mercy seat.

The Blood is shed

The Blood Applied

And similarly in the layout of the Tabernacle we can see at the altar the Lamb of God slain from the foundation of the world. And on the Yom Kippur service showcased there we see the blood of the Sacrifice Lamb as it is carried on into the Sanctuary, through the veil, and into the Holy of holies to the Ark and the mercy seat.

The Melchizedek Priesthood overlays the Levitical Priesthood.

1st Coming

2nd Coming

On a future Day of Atonement in the heavenly Tabernacle the blood of Jesus our Messiah, Israel's promised Sacrifice Lamb will be sprinkled on the mercy seat atop the Ark of the Covenant.

Follow the blood of the Sacrifice Lamb from the Brazen Altar and at Calvary and on into the Holy of Holies.

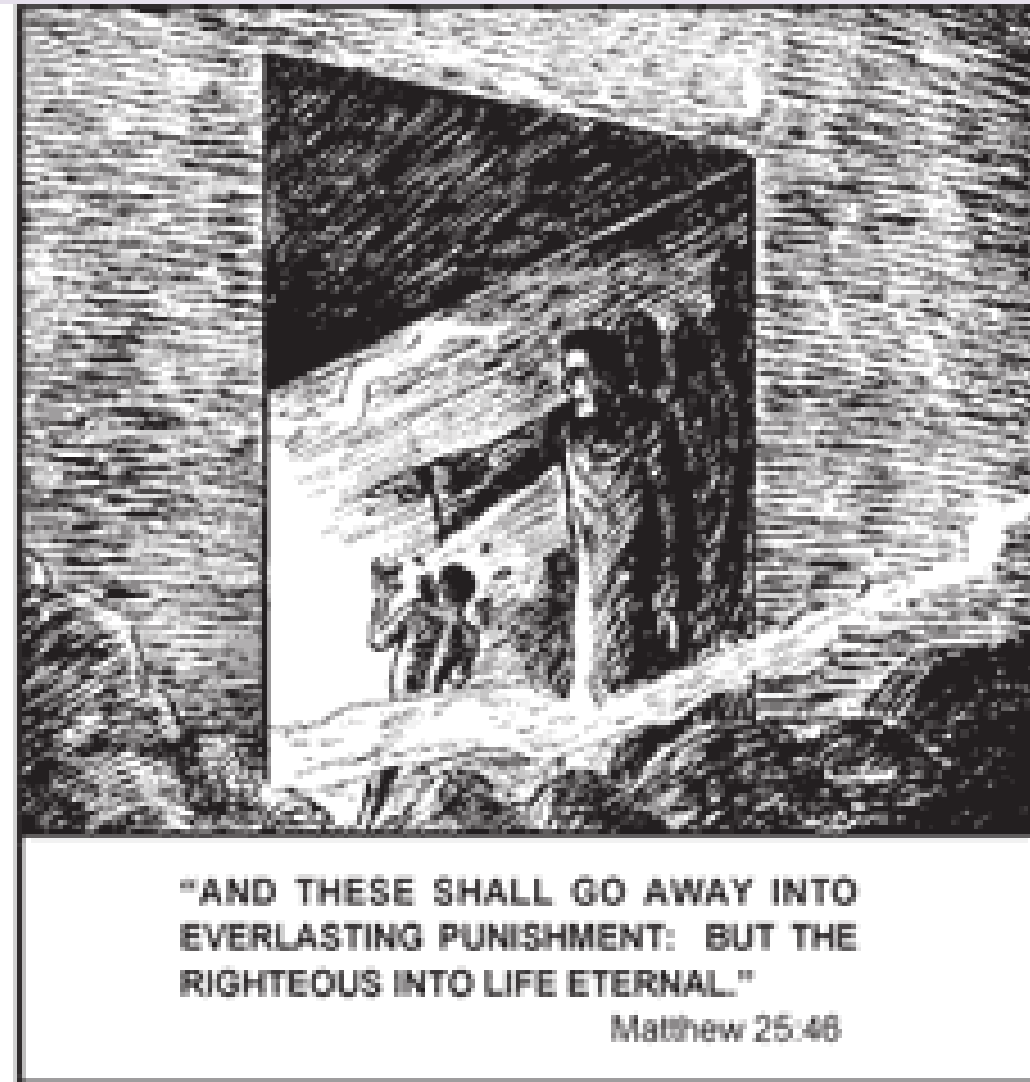

Every year the High Priest entered beyond the veil into the most Holy Place. We need to be respectful of God's order of things. There is only one day in the year in which the blood of atonement could pass through curtain and into the Holy of Holies. That Day is Yom Kippur. God is telling us something here. Yeshua's High Priestly ministry at the Holy of Holies cannot happen on just any old day. The final atonement must occur on the Day of Atonement! This is the set time, the appointed time when the Presence of God is manifest over the Mercy Seat in the Holy of Holies.

The general theme and an idiom for the Day of Atonement is this matter of coming face to face with God. At the end of the age we must all present ourselves before the Ancient of Days. But we cannot even hope to approach Him without a covering, an atonement for sin. The name, Yom Kippur, Day of Covering, points to the necessity of a person being covered on that awesome day

If we are to come before God face to face without His covering then our sins, our debts, our transgressions will be our doom. Unless an intermediary, Somebody who is without sin, provides a blood covering for our sin, God's wrath will surely fall on us and we shall be totally and absolutely damned!

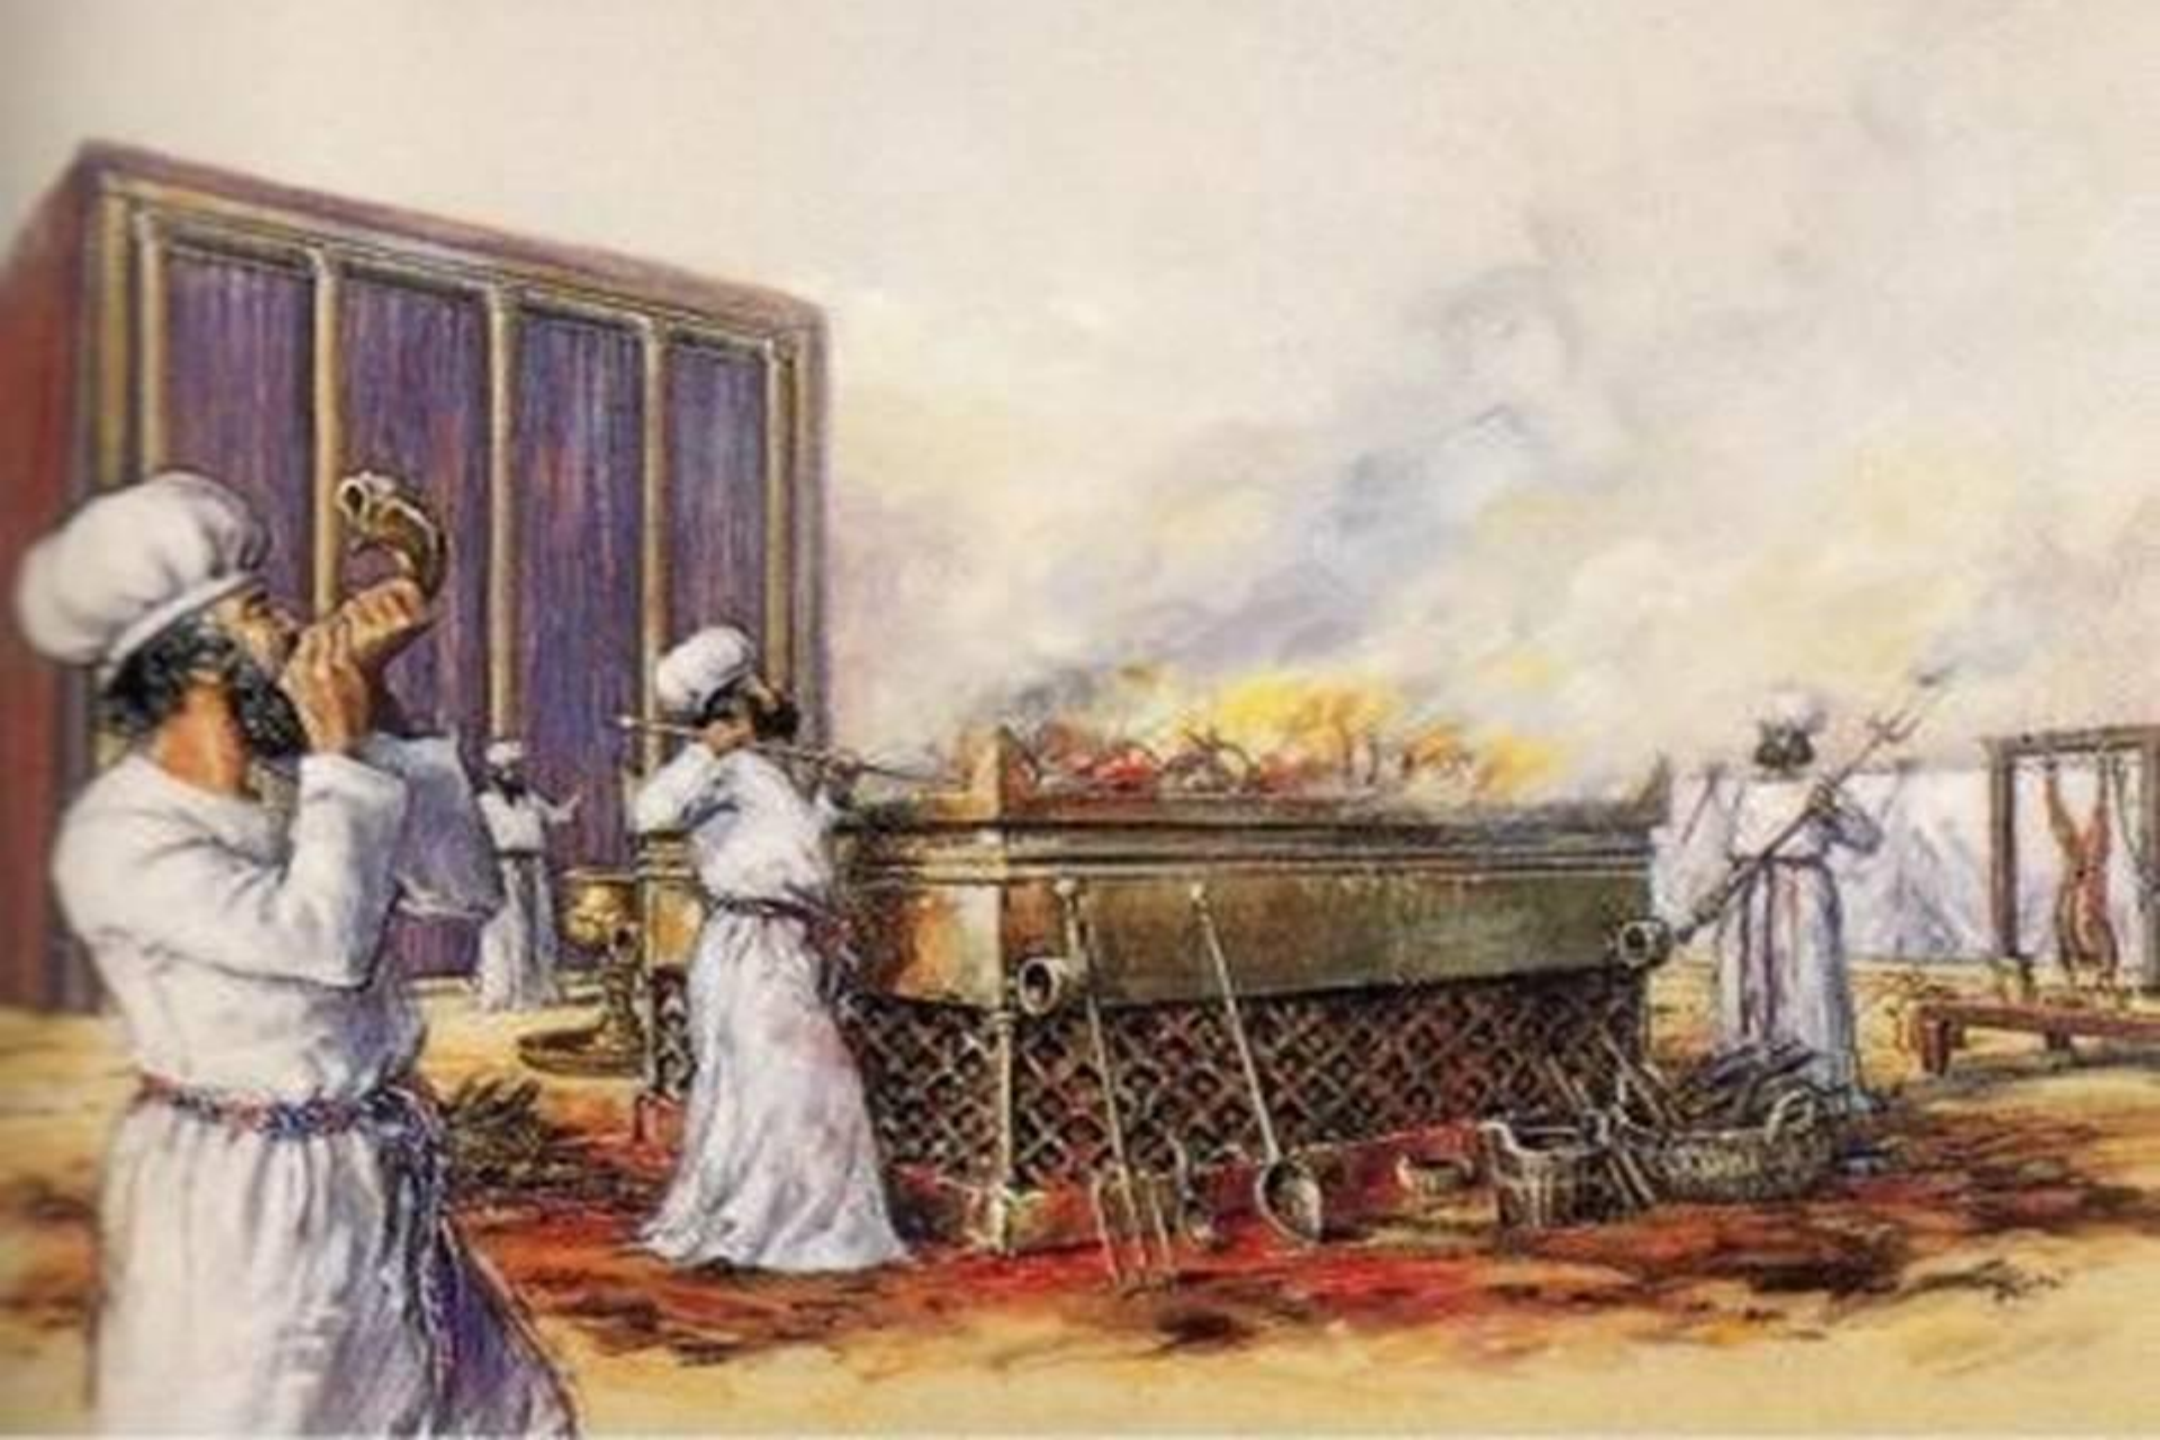

But for those who have by faith surrendered themselves to Jesus / Yeshua the judgment will be a happier one. Because Jesus is our High Priest after the Order of Melchizedek.

And on an epic future Yom Kippur He will provide that blood covering for all of us. On that Day our Messiah will sprinkle His own blood, the ultimate blood covering on the mercy seat in the Heavenly Sanctuary.

And on That Day, all the previous blood sacrifices offered up by faith to God in all the times past before and under the Levitical Priesthood will be covered. Under the Old Covenant the children of the faith of Abraham were saved just as people are saved today. They were justified by faith, faith in God and in what He had spoken. And for those who believed it was counted for them as righteousness. People were never saved by the blood of these animal sacrifices per se. These were a show-and-tell of an ultimate sacrifice yet to come. It was not by the keeping of the law but by God's grace through faith that they were saved. The ultimate blood covering and the final atonement for sin, was to be provided in a time yet future.

God was not looking for the blood of bulls and goats and sheep. And with His friend Abraham God was not looking for the blood of Isaac to be shed. He was looking for a sacrificial willingness of heart and a declaration of faith in his partner Abraham. God asked him to surrender up the very thing most dear to his heart, his only son. When God saw that Abraham was willing to do this it was enough. He sent the angel to stop the sacrifice. In the two way but unconditional Abrahamic Covenant, God would then send His son to be our Sacrifice Lamb.

Abraham was then given a wonderful promise, that great salvation verse from the Old Testament. He was told, “God will provide HIMSELF, a Lamb.” He looked around and saw the lamb caught in the briars. The thorns were wrapped around His head. This was a foreshadowing of the ultimate future Sacrifice Lamb.

⁷ And Isaac spoke to Abraham his father, and said, “My father:” and he said, “Here am I, my son.” And he said, “Behold the fire and the wood: but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?”
⁸ And Abraham said, “My son, God will provide HIMSELF a lamb . . .”
¹³ And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns: and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering in the stead of his son.

The spotless Lamb of God would be provided from heaven. The thorns were wrapped around His head. Our Lord Jesus would shoulder the cost of our redemption.

His blood would purchase salvation for many and for the sinners that we all are. This blood of the Lamb covers and justifies us before a holy God. Only by this blood can we face the Judge and to have Him hand down a verdict of “not guilty”.

The cutting of a covenant brings the blood of atonement. This brings peace between God and man.

Men of faith know that through the blood God will provide for them. The patriarchs of old all understood by. It is a central theme throughout Holy Scripture.

Our spiritual father Abraham showcased this blood covenant with Yehovah-God 4,000 years ago. It was an unconditional blood covenant cut between God and Abraham's family of faith. This faith in the atoning blood of Israel's Promised Sacrifice Lamb is the essence of the New Covenant.

Faith in the God who provides the ultimate blood of atonement is the foundation for the Everlasting Covenant. The blood of the animals was never the object. The sacrifices served only to showcase the gravity of our transgressions. Before we can walk with God we need to see the terrible consequences of our sin. We need to ponder the cost of our reconciliation before a holy God.

The ultimate and final and acceptable blood of atonement was shed at Calvary. This blood covers our sin and restores the fellowship between God and His people. Out of this realization comes a broken and contrite heart. This in turn brings us into a deep fellowship with the one who made the sacrifice for us.

Psalm 51

17. For thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it: thou delightest not in burnt offering.

18. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

So out of the promises of Abraham and from the faith that calls out to God from a broken and penitent heart comes our great salvation. The promised Seed of Abraham, the Lamb of God, came to us as Immanuel, God with us, God incarnate, God in the flesh. Israel's Suffering Servant came to this earth to fulfill the role as our Redeemer. He walked among us. Then He offered Himself up, shedding His blood to provide the ultimate and final atonement for sin. He explained all this to His disciples at the Last Supper. Even now He is calling all who will hear His voice to come into His great salvation and follow Him.

And on a future epic Day of Atonement this same Jesus/Yeshua our High Priest of the high Order of Melchizedek will minister in the new covenant on our behalf up in the heavenly sanctuary. On That Day He will sprinkle His own blood, the ultimate blood of Atonement upon the mercy seat. This is described in the Book of Hebrews, chapter 7, 8 & 9.

The timing of this future atonement and covering for sin is laid out for us in Hebrews 9. This Scripture couldn't be clearer. The atonement will occur at the end of the age. This ultimate atonement will be witnessed, and accepted at the Ark of the covenant in the heavenly sanctuary. On That Day, and not before, our justification will be fully ratified before God for His courts above.

23 It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. 24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us: 25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others; 26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: BUT NOW, ONCE, in the END OF THE WORLD / AGE hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.” - Hebrews 9:23-26

Let's read what is written in the Scriptures.

BUT NOW, ONCE, in the END OF THE WORLD / END OF THE AGE hath he appeared to put away sin by the SACRIFICE OF HIMSELF.” - Hebrews 9:23-26

BUT NOW,
ONCE,
in the END OF THE WORLD
(END OF THE AGE)
hath he appeared to put away sin by the SACRIFICE OF HIMSELF.”

- Hebrews 9:23-26

The two angels will be there to witness this ultimate Yom Kippur. One of these angels is a witness to God's Grace and Mercy such as we see in the Gospel. The other angel is a witness to the fulfillment of His righteousness in the Law. Jesus/Yeshua, our High Priest and coming King, will satisfy both. His blood will cover the sins of all the Elect coming from both sides of Calvary. And on That Day all who have lived and died in the faith will be justified.

The Ark of the Covenant was revered as the very Throne of Yehovah, the Eternal Almighty God. God was envisioned by Israel as sitting enthroned upon the Mercy Seat.

As our Scripture passage from Hebrews 9:27 goes on to say,

“It is appointed unto men once to die, and after this, the Judgment.”

So whether we pass from this life by death or by living here on earth right up to the last day of the age we shall still arrive here, at the Judgment.

“It is appointed unto men once to die,
and after this, the Judgment.” Heb. 9:27

The Day of Judgment is the final Day of Atonement. It is the ultimate Yom Kippur, the conclusive Day of Covering. All who have known and trusted Christ our coming Messiah will be blessed. They will see Him "face to face" and they will live and not die.

The Elect will pass from the valley of the shadow of death and on into Life eternal.

So as we can see, the Day of Atonement is a very somber moment of closure for all who live upon this earth. When the sun sets on that final Yom Kippur of all Yom Kippurs it will truly be the last chance to repent. As we have seen, an idiom for the Day of Atonement and the meaning of the word Neilah is "closing of the gates". For those who would seek reconciliation with God the time has run out. Would that not be a suitable and auspicious time for the Last Trumpet to sound?

*Yom Kippur
The Day of Atonement*

The Closing of the Gates

Revelation 10:7 and 11:15 are the two references to the 7th Trumpet. This is a single trumpet blast

As we see, it will be sounded by an angel and not by men. The two verses here tell the story. And the time reference here could not be clearer.

The 7th trumpet marks the time when

1. the mystery of God is finished and
2. the kingdoms of this world become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Messiah.

So if the 7th Trumpet sounds at the consummation of the age then it is indeed the last trumpet.

Revelation 10:7 (KJV)

But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

Revelation 11:15 (KJV)

And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

The 7th Trumpet is the Last Trump

So now we come to this question. Might this Last Trumpet sound be the one rehearsed and featured by our Jewish friends at the final Neilah service on Yom Kippur? Will it be the great long Tekia Gedolah? After all, this is the last of the four classic shofar blasts. And on top of that, the spirit of climax and closure we hear in the great Tekia Gedolah does match that sense of finality we might expect to hear in the Last Trump. Let's listen.

1. The Tekia,
2. Shevarim,
3. The Teruah,

4. The Great Tekia Gedolah

Here sound the long great climactic

Tekia Gedolah!

So as we can tell, the great long Tekia Gedolah is quite different from the broken staccato trumpet blast of alarm we hear in the Teruah.

The shouting and the blowing of multiple trumpets by men and women all over the world will break out dramatically on a future Yom Teruah. But that single long unbroken trumpet blast is quite a different sound. Will the Last Trump sounded by an angel at the end of the age be the great long drawn-out Tekia Gedolah?

Tekia

Shevarim

Teruah

Tekia Gedolah!

When the verdicts of Judgment Day have been handed down the Last Trumpet will sound. And when the sun sets on that final Day of Accounting space-time will be unzipped. The heavens will roll back for the unveiling or Apocalypse of Messiah in the Day of the Lord. And right inside the Day of the Lord will come the execution of the Judgment by the angels of the Harvest.

The Final 7 Years of This Age

Ah yes.

*The dreaded
Day of the Lord;*
and

The Harvest!

Let's talk about that.

The Harvest at the end of the age is spoken of throughout Holy Scripture in many ways. We hear of a harvest in which the sheaves are reaped and brought in.

The sheaves were also featured in Joseph's dream. He dreamed of the sheaves of his brothers all bowing down to his sheave.

That dream caused his brothers such anger that they sought to kill him.

Apparently the House and gate of Joseph has a prominent part to play in the end-time harvest of the wheat. But that's another story for another time.

Another description of the end-time harvest come from the words of Jesus in His parable of the dragnet. Many fish are caught in the net and brought in from the sea. The first job of the fishermen is to pluck out the bad fish and throw them away. Jesus tells us very plainly that this is how it is going to be at the harvest at the end of the age.

This same theme of the dragnet was picked up and featured on a popular TV series back in the 60's. Los Angeles police sergeant Joe Friday was the man who was coming around. And yes, he was sifting through everyone he saw in his net. Was he out to identify and collar the good people? No, he was not. He was out to identify, pluck out, and put away the BAD people.

2009

In the parable of the wheat and the tares

We see a similar story. The tares, the wicked, are plucked up first. Here we are given some very valuable information as to what will happen after the judgment.

The judgment will be executed in the harvest at the end of the age.

TARES Look IDENTICAL To WHEAT

WHEAT: before it is fully ripe.

TARES: Lolium Temulentum

In Matthew 13:36-42 Jesus states quite categorically that the angels of the harvest would be loosed at the end of world. In the Greek it is end of the “eon”, or in other words the end of the age. You can pause the video here and read what He said.

Matthew 13:36-42

“Then Jesus sent the multitude away, . . . and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field. He answered and said unto them,

He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man; The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one; The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels. As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world. The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.”

In both of these harvest parables we see the same pattern and course of events.

People at the end of the age are gathered together, tested by various trials, and then judged. Then in the harvest the wicked are dealt with first. The wicked are plucked up, dispatched, and carried away to a place of death.

Step 1

Judgment: Condemnation

Step 2

Execution: The
Wicked Dispatched

In the Olivet Discourse Jesus speaks of this initial rapture event, the rapture or plucking up of the wicked. He tells of two men working in the field and two women grinding grain in the mill. One is taken, the other left.

Luke 17: 34-37

One shall be taken;

³⁴ I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left. ³⁵ Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left. ³⁶ Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

Who is taken? Is it the righteous or the wicked? The late Dr. John Walvoord of Dallas Theological Seminary, the recognized dean of the Pre-Trib Rapture doctrine, states that the ones taken first are the wicked. They are taken off and killed. This is just the opposite of what is taught in the “Left Behind” books.

The longtime No. 1 pretrib rapture authority, Dr. John Walvoord of Dallas Seminary, has written that the "Left Behind" books and movies have a NON-BIBLICAL foundation! Walvoord says in his book "The Rapture Question," p. 169, that the ones "taken" first in Matt. 24 are the wicked who are judged and killed, and the ones "left" behind are the righteous - which is just the OPPOSITE of what "Left Behind" books and films portray!

The words of Jesus confirm the truth of what Dr. Walvoord states. In the Olivet Discourse Jesus's disciples ask Him where these people will be carried off to. The place Jesus tells them about is absolutely horrific.

Jesus says it is a place where eagles and other raptors gather, a place where birds of prey gather around carcasses to pluck off the flesh. This is definitely not the rapture event we should be hoping for.

Luke 17: 34-37

One shall be taken;
The other left.

³⁷ And they answered and said unto him,
Where, Lord? And he said unto them,
Wheresoever the body is,
thither will the eagles be gathered together.

He says where the carcasses are the eagles, or some translations say vultures, will gather, presumably to eat the prey. So the wicked are taken off to a place where raptors gather to pluck off the flesh. So this first catching away is in fact a rapture of the wicked. It is definitely not the blessed hope, the glorious Resurrection-Rapture of the Elect.

In that wonderful comforting Psalm of protection, Psalm 91, King David under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit makes an interesting statement. David says “You will see the reward of the wicked.” Could this passage have an application for the Harvest? Was David alluding to the protection God will afford His saints in the Day of the Lord when the wrath of God falls personally and specifically upon the wicked?

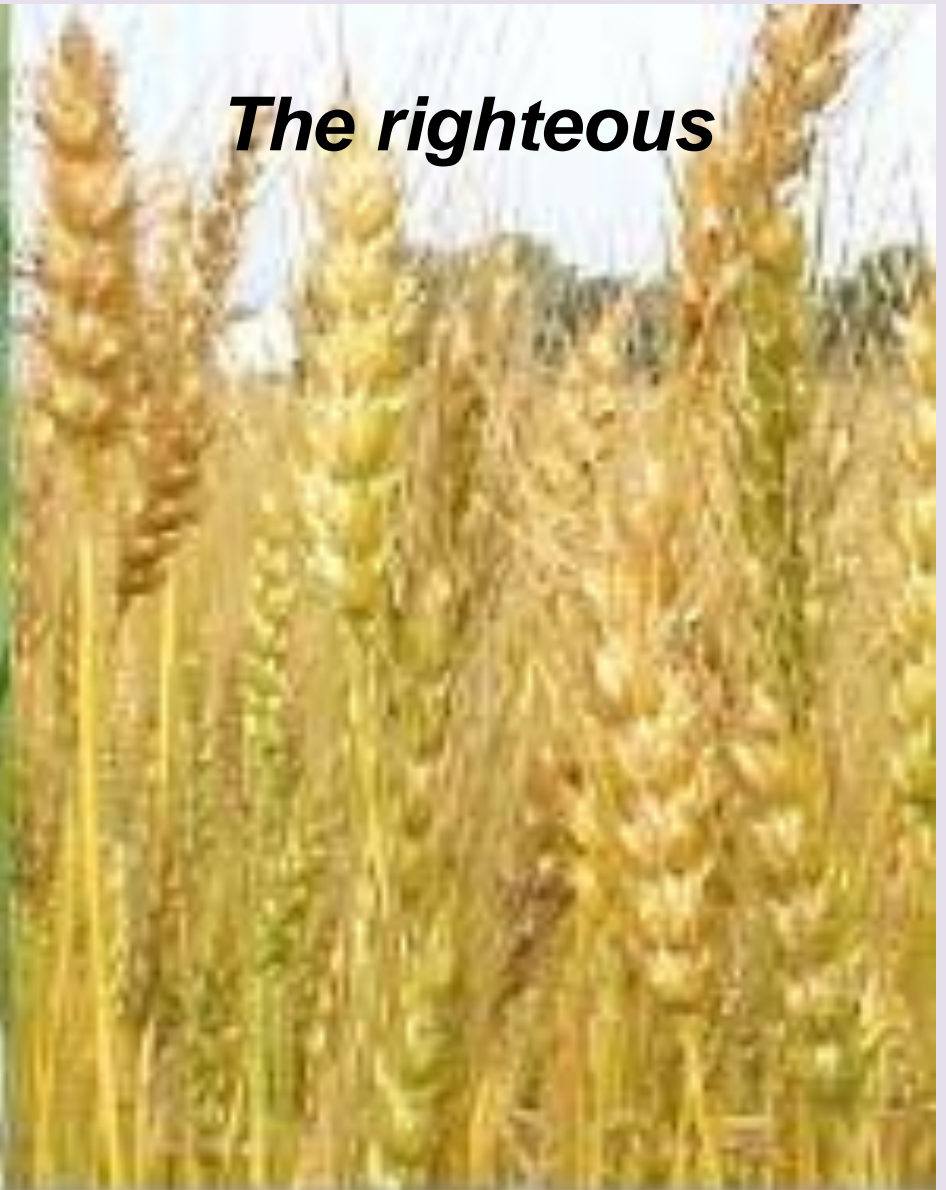

⁷ A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.⁸ Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked. ⁹ Because thou hast made the LORD, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation; ¹⁰ There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. ¹¹ For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

When the sun sets on the Last Day of this age the Day of the Lord will open up and the angels of the harvest will go out to execute the Judgment. In Matthew 13:30 Jesus tells us quite plainly that the tares will be gathered first.

The wicked

The righteous

TARES

WHEAT

Like the weeds, the tares, the rebels, the supplanters, and the usurpers who presume to live and lord over the field belonging to the Master will be bundled up and carried off to be burned in the fires. And so there should be no argument about this at all. If Jesus tells us that terrible harvest of the wicked will come first then that is precisely what is going to happen.

We read of evil angels in Psalm 78. The angels of death passed over Egypt during that first Passover and struck down the firstborn of Egypt. These are the sort of angels that will be loosed for the harvest of the wicked. This is not spoken about in our churches or synagogues. But the artists, as usual, have picked up on this theme, portraying quite faithfully and graphically the awful destiny of the wicked.

Bible prophecy teachers never speak of the Rapture of the wicked. But Jesus did. And the evil angels loosed at the harvest will not be like the cutesy ones sold in the Christian bookstore. The angels of wrath will be hideous messengers of sheer horror. The wicked will be carried off kicking and screaming. Rebels will be bundled up for the fires. As usual, the artists have been the first to pick up on this dramatic apocalyptic event. Churchmen have either lost the plot or they are reluctant to talk about it. But profane artists in the tattoo parlors have been very graphic in portraying the sheer horror of this terrible end-time harvest. The grim reapers are keen to go out and gather up THEIR people! Should we not then warn the spiritually careless of this coming horror? Dear people. If you are not saved do not neglect the call of God on your life. Today is the day of salvation!

Execution: The
Resurrection-Rapture

In 1Corinthians 15:51 we see that this magnificent and unprecedented Resurrection-Rapture will be heralded by the Last Trump. In the Day of the Lord at a time unknown they are caught up. They are changed in the twinkling of an eye. They are clothed with new spiritual bodies that will last for eternity.

1 Corinthians 15:51-52 (KJV)

⁵¹ Behold, I shew you a mystery;

We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,

⁵² In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump:
for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised
incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

There is a Blessed Hope. After the Judgment, that last and final Day of Atonement, the saved will be caught up to meet Messiah as He returns. From 1Thes. 4 we see this includes both the living and the dead. The dead are raised first, then the living. We should always speak of a Resurrection-Rapture and not just a bare Rapture. Back in the 19th century Religious elites divided the Rapture of the living from the Resurrection of the righteous dead. God put them together in Holy Scripture. And so what God has joined together let no man put asunder. But they got us to talk about just a bare Rapture. These men were either deceived themselves or deliberately obfuscating the truth in order to promote a popular but flawed eschatology.

1 Thessalonians 4:15-17 (KJV)

¹⁵ For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent, (or precede), them which are asleep, (have died).¹⁶ For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: ¹⁷ Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

Because the harpazo event, the Resurrection-Rapture also cross-references with that inspiring vision of the resurrection and restoration of the whole House of Israel. This was seen by the prophet Ezekiel and described in Ezekiel 37. Ezekiel saw the entire House of Israel being raised back to life out of the Valley of Dry Bones.

And in the Olivet Discourse Jesus said that His holy angels will gather His entire undivided Elect from the four winds of heaven. This would mean His Elect would be caught up from across space and time, the living and the dead, from across this world and from both sides of Calvary.

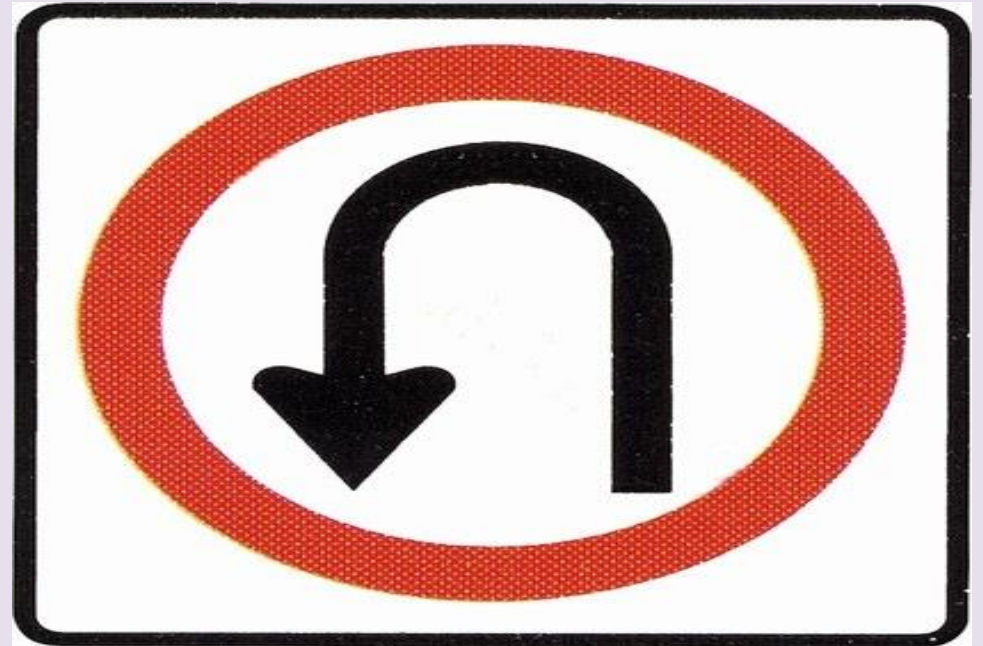

The Olivet Discourse

Matthew 24:29-32

³¹ And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

So even in a future time of severe trial our God has outlined a very positive plan. The blowing of the trumpets on Yom Teruah, the Feast of Trumpets, is a very necessary awakening alarm. With it comes a summons to assemble before God, and Him alone. This is outlined very clearly in Joel chapter 2. The ultimate days of awe are up there in our future. They will be characterized by an unprecedented call to repentance and end gloriously with a magnificent End-Time Revival.

God and country gone!
A false messiah!
No pre-trib rapture!
And we are unprepared!
It is time to repent,
to cry out to God

But some may ask, “Are we as Western Christians really in need of repentance and restoration in God? Where are we falling short of the mark?” After all, we have our own personal ticket to heaven. Isn't that enough?

Well we may well have our personal ticket to heaven. But we are part of a grand company. God is calling us to come up to a higher blood covenant level of responsibility.

Through a process of sanctification our great salvation will blossom into its ultimate fullness in His glory. The virtue of this process of sanctification and refinement of spirit and character is not yet appreciated by Western Christian believers. But we have a sacred destiny more wonderful than we know. We have been asked to finish the race of Hebrews 12:1. The overcomers will run this race on behalf of all the saints who have run before them.

This final leg of the relay race is our high calling.

Shall we prepare ourselves to run?

Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily besets us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. - Heb. 12:1-2

We are in a war, a spiritual war. It is an information war, an epic battle for the souls of men. God has laid the lines for us very beautifully in the Fall Feasts. And since we are His witnesses to the ends of the earth we have been written into the story. But has the Western Church been readied for this? In the legend Rip Van Winkle slept through the revolution. He missed his chance to be a part of a glorious campaign. It seems that many of us are about to act out the very same story. God's covenant people are asleep.

But God loves us. He loves us enough to lay out His agenda quite accurately for us. Think of it! He has given us a roadmap and a very precise timeline for the final seven years of this age.

The Final 7 Years of this age
= 1260 + 1290 = 2550 days

*Feast of Trumpets
Tishrei 1*

*Day of
Atonement
Tishrei 10*

Days of Awe
(7 years)

*The inclusive Timeline bridging those Fall
Feasts is also precisely 2550 DAYS!

And on a special future Yom Teruah
He has made arrangements for us to get a “wake-up call”. On that awesome future Feast of Trumpets
the shofars will be sounded, and by men and women of flesh and blood.

YOM TERUAH

“Blow the Shofar in Tziyon

for the Yom/Day of יהוה is near”

Joel/Joel 2:1

Seven years later on Yom Kippur
we shall hear the long final climactic blast, the great Tekia Gedolah.
The Last Trump will be sounded by an angel on the occasion of the Resurrection-Rapture.

1 Corinthians 15:51-52 (KJV)

⁵¹ Behold, I shew you a mystery;

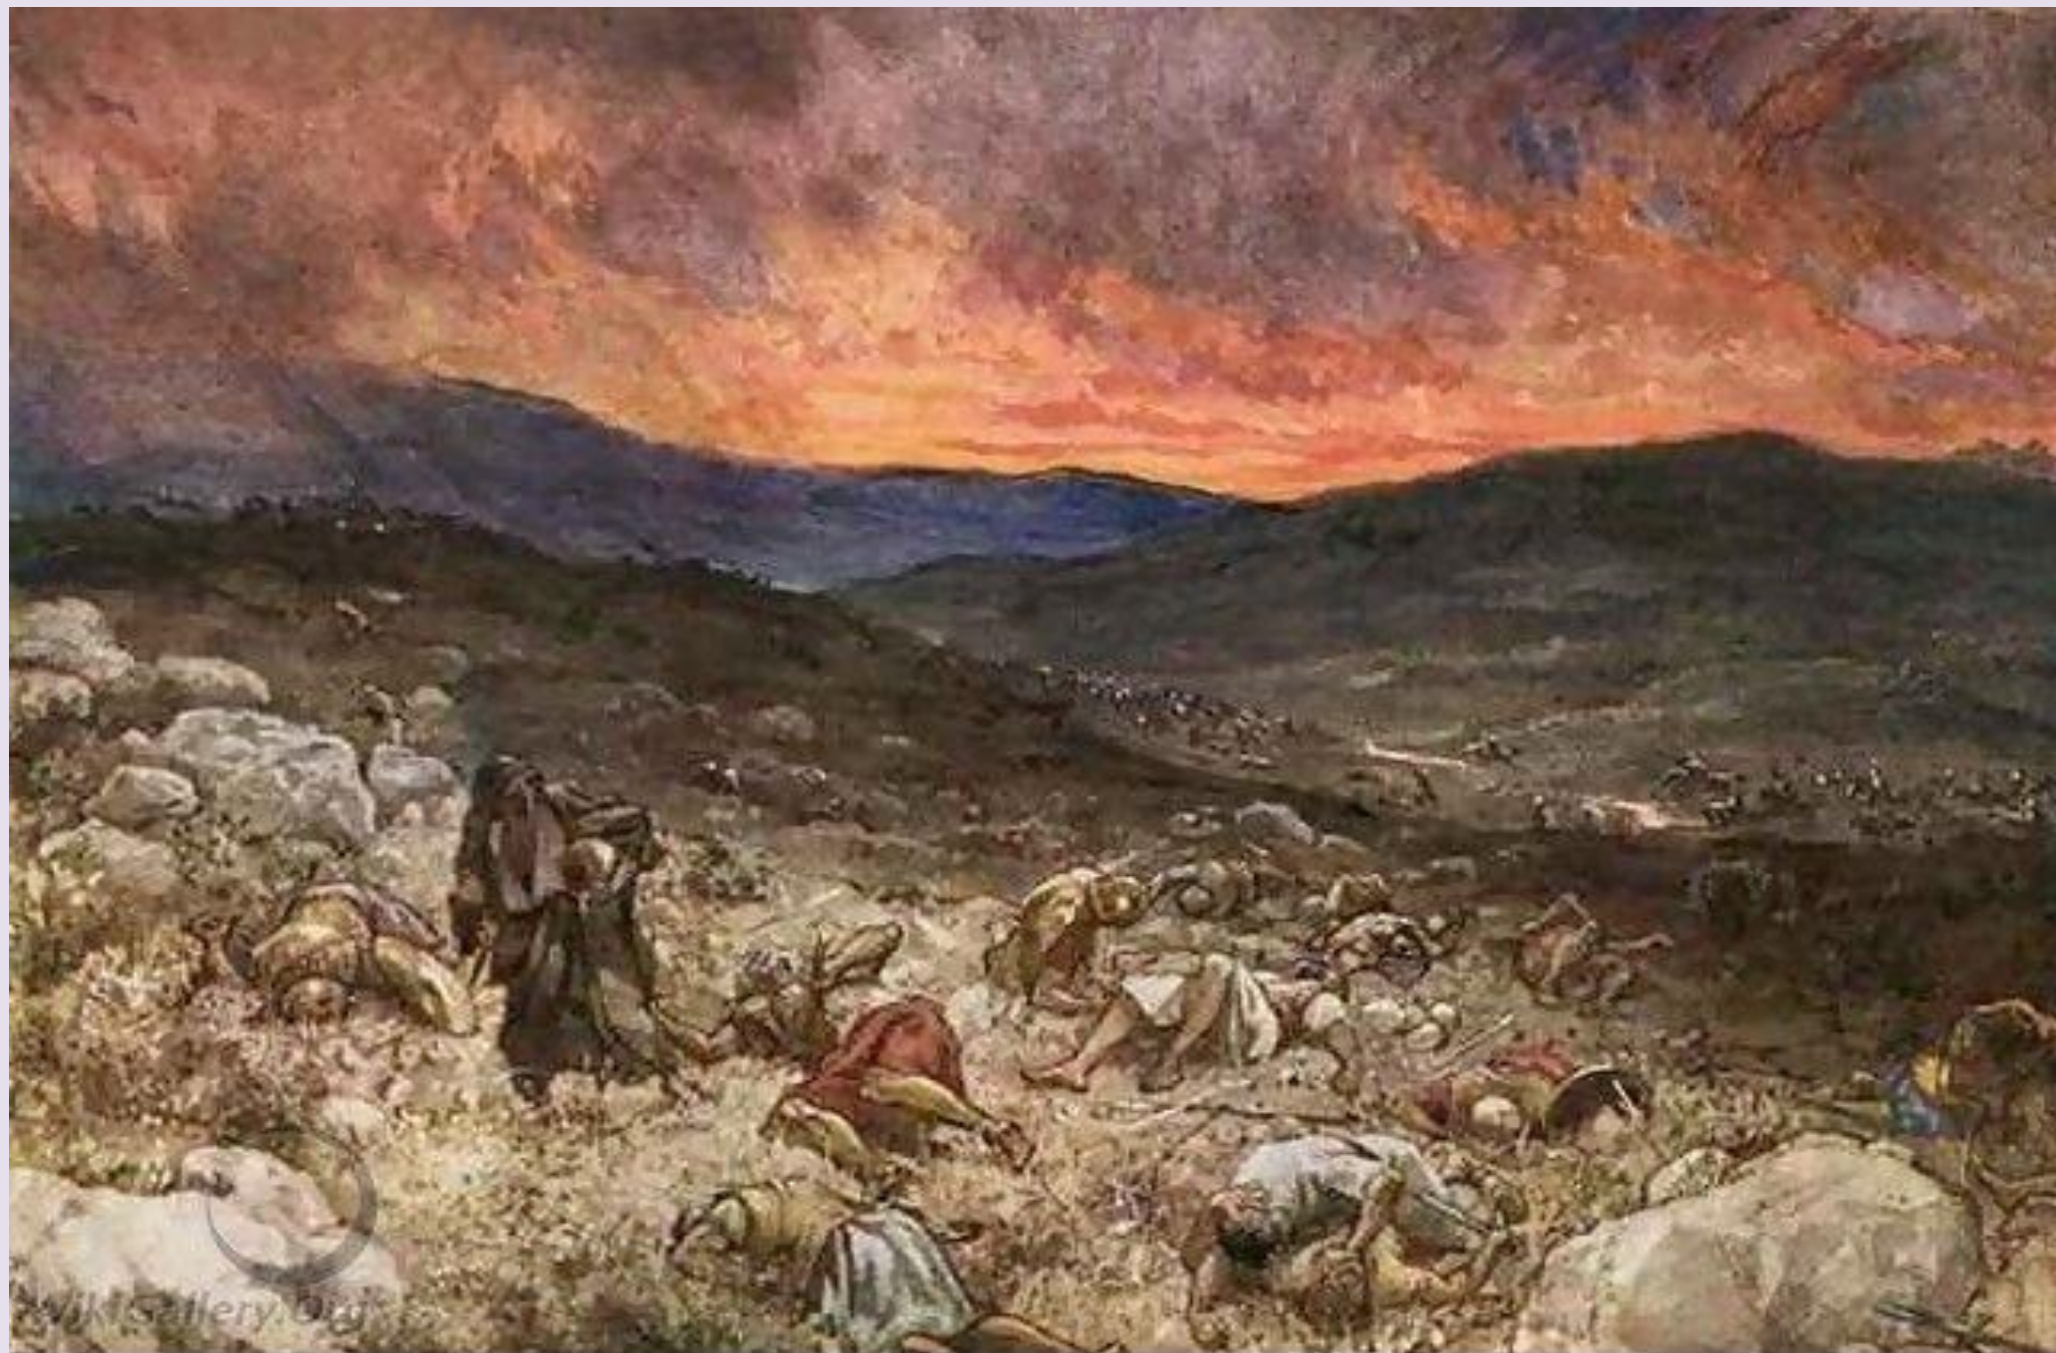

We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,

⁵² In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump:
for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised
incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

So here we stand. Up ahead lies a difficult passage through a strait gate and a dark valley of decision. The battle is for our souls and the souls of others we meet. It is not a struggle against others. The battle will not be won in the flesh, nor by military power, politics, or compromise. The struggle lies within. Eventually, like Jacob at the Jabbok River the dawning light will come. We shall realize that in all our strivings and in our efforts at self-preservation we have wrestling with God Himself.

For Pilgrims there are no military solutions for us in the latter days. As David laments in the Song of the Bow, “The beauty of Israel lies slain upon her high places. How the mighty have fallen”. This is a prophetic song. All the earthly strivings of God’s people, and all their efforts in the flesh are for naught. But nevertheless, at the end of the story, the Holy One of Israel will have His overcomers. And His end-time witness will go out to the ends of the earth.

The angel Gabriel told the prophet Daniel in Daniel 12 that the power of the holy people will be completely shattered. So if this is the case then we are done for, right? How is the promised end-time victory possible?

⁵ Then I, Daniel, looked and behold, two others were standing, one on this bank of the river and the other on that bank of the river,
⁶ And one said to the man dressed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, “How long will it be until the end of these wonders?” ⁷ I heard “it shall be for a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. Dan. 12:5-10

So where will the power come from to finish this race and to see it through to the end.

The prophet Zechariah declared,
“Not by might, nor by power,
but by my Spirit saith the Lord.”

“Not by might nor by power,
but by my Spirit,”
says the LORD Almighty.
Zechariah 4:6

It seems God's covenant people will become overcomers even in a time of trial and tribulation. But how? How will God empower His chosen ones through that? The prophet Joel is just one of many of the prophets who spoke of an climactic Holy Spirit outpouring, and End-Time Revival.

²⁸ And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: ²⁹ And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.

- Joel 2:28-29 (KJV)

Joel saw this blow-out latter rain downpour after the Great Tribulation during the 6th seal and accompanied by the cosmic signs of a darkened sun, a bloody moon, and meteor showers like stars falling. The Holy Spirit outpouring will come to a peak as Messiah returns at the end of this age.

³¹ The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of the LORD come. ³² And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: Joel 2:31-32

So yes, there will be a true and genuine Latter Rain outpouring. And for those who have decided to follow Jesus, come what may, the promised End-time Revival will surely come.
